- What part of God's pursuit of people stood out to you most in this message, and why? Was it Hosea and Gomer, Adam and Eve, the Prodigal Son, the Lost Sheep, or another example?
- The sermon says that "sin is not just breaking rules, it's breaking relationship." How does that perspective change the way you think about your relationship with God?
- Have there been seasons in your life when you wandered from God, yet later recognized that He was still pursuing you? What did that pursuit look like?
- The message says that if we seek God, we should expect two things: we'll find Him, and our lives will change. Which of those is easier for you to embrace, and which is more challenging? Why?
- If God is currently knocking on the door of some area of your life, what might He be inviting you to surrender, change, trust, or step into this week?

Key Verse: Revelation 3:20 “Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends.”
