- What stood out to you most from Jesus' teaching in Matthew 6, and why do you think it grabbed your attention?
- The message suggested that "what consumes our hearts drives our lives." What are some clues that reveal what currently has the greatest influence over your heart and priorities?
- Jesus contrasts earthly treasures with heavenly treasures. In your current season of life, what competes most with loving God and loving people as your highest priority?
- The idea of "holy discontent" is being dissatisfied with something that should change. Where do you sense God stirring a holy discontent in your own life right now?
- Jesus ends by saying, "Seek the Kingdom of God above all else." What is one practical step you can take this week to invest more intentionally in your relationship with God or in a relationship with another person?

Key Verse: Matthew 6:33 Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need.
