- Rob said that every close relationship has expectations built on trust. What are some healthy expectations in our relationships with others? What usually happens when trust is broken?
- Read Psalm 51:1-6. What stands out to you about David's prayer? What does it teach us about how God wants us to approach Him after we've sinned or failed?
- The sermon said, "Prayer is how we rebuild trust with God." How does that change the way you think about prayer, especially after you've made mistakes?
- David was completely honest with God instead of hiding or making excuses. What keeps people from being that honest with God? Why is vulnerability so difficult?
- The challenge this week is to ask: "Where am I holding back in my conversations with God, and why?" What is one practical step you can take this week to have a more honest conversation with God?

Key Verse: Psalm 51:1 Have mercy on me, O God, because of your unfailing love. Because of your great compassion, blot out the stain of my sins.
