1. Have you ever been asked to do something that felt completely pointless or repetitive? How did it affect your attitude or sense of purpose?
2. Paul told the Galatians to “put down the scaffolding clamps.” What are some modern examples of things people do to feel right with God, rather than trust that they already are?
3. NT Wright compared living under the law to living in winter and life in Christ to spring. Where do you see yourself or others still “living like it’s winter”?
4. “What matters is faith expressing itself in love.” What does that kind of faith look like in action?
5. Freedom can be abused or used well. What helps you use your freedom to serve others in love instead of just serving yourself?
6. If someone described your life right now, would “love” be one of the first words they’d use? If not, what’s getting in the way?

KEY VERSE: John 13:35 Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”
