LIFE WITH GOD

8/31/25

- When you think about epitaphs, what words would you hope summarize your life?
- Why do you think Paul chose to highlight Priscilla and Aquila in his letter to the Romans?
- How does their story show that everyday work (like tentmaking) can be a platform for ministry?
- What risks did Priscilla and Aquila take for their faith, and what risks feel hardest for you to imagine taking?
- How do you picture their home church shaping the lives of people around them?
- Who are the “unsung placemakers” in your own life—the people quietly shaping faith communities without much recognition?
- What ordinary spaces in your life (home, job, friendships) could God use to reach people?

Key Verse: Romans 16:3 Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my co-workers in the ministry of Christ Jesus.
