- When have you tried to improve at something by following general tips instead of getting personal guidance? How did it work out?
- Why is it important that God's promise to Abraham came before the law?
- Paul says the law is like a map, but now we have the Spirit as our guide. What's the difference between following a map and following a guide?
- Galatians 3:28 says we're all one in Christ. What barriers still divide people in the church today?
- Where are you tempted to live by "rules" instead of trusting the Spirit, and what would it look like to shift?

KEY VERSE: Galatians 3:28 There is no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.
