- Share a time you made a big decision that went sideways. What did it teach you about listening to your gut?
- If someone you care about is loudly wrong, how do you try to change their mind without tearing them down?
- Paul claims he heard straight from Jesus. What would it take for you to believe someone who says that today?
- Saul to Paul is a dramatic turnaround. What's a transformation—your own or someone else's—that still surprises you?
- Paul says God "set me apart before I was born." Does that idea of "being chosen" encourage you, unsettle you, or something else?
- Where do you see the freedom of the gospel threatened in the church today?
- What helps you know the Bible well without turning it into just another list of dos and don'ts?

KEY VERSE: Galatians 1:11-12 Dear brothers and sisters, I want you to understand that the gospel message I preach is not based on mere human reasoning. I received my message from no human source, and no one taught me. Instead, I received it by direct revelation from Jesus Christ.
