

“GO DEEPER” QUESTIONS

EVERY DAY MATTERS

9/27/26

- When you hear the dream “A Place for Everyone,” what part of that dream connects with you most deeply?
What do you think people in our community are most hungry for right now—belonging, peace, purpose, hope, joy, authentic relationships, or something else?
- Read Matthew 11:28–30. What do you think it actually looks like for someone to experience the “rest” Jesus offers?
Where are you tempted to look for the things Jesus offers—peace, belonging, fulfillment, identity—in places that can’t ultimately provide them?
- Rob and Julie described the “Lower Room” as what God does for us and the “Upper Room” as what God calls us to do with Him. Where would you say you are right now?
Are you primarily receiving from Jesus, or are you actively joining Him in what He is doing in the lives of others? What might your next step into the “Upper Room” look like?
- Think about your own “Jerusalem”—the people God has already placed around you. Who are the people you regularly see at home, work, school, in your neighborhood, or through your hobbies?
Where might God already be at work in one of those relationships? What would it look like to pay closer attention rather than trying to force something spiritual to happen?
- Look at the five Placemaker characteristics: Devoted Child, Authentic Friend, Generous Neighbor, Unwavering Advocate, and Humble Guide. Which one currently describes you best, and which one most needs to grow in you?

Key Verse: Matthew 28:19, 19 Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.
