Christ the Lord Is Risen Today

Leader: Jesus rides into Jerusalem upon a donkey. The crowd cheers, laying palm branches at his feet.

Congregation: "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"

Leader: Jesus prepares his disciples for what's to come. The God of the universe kneels and washes their feet, instructing them to do likewise.

Congregation: Hosanna! Alleluia!

Leader: Jesus is arrested and unfairly tried. An offer is given—Rome can release Jesus the Messiah or the notorious prisoner, Barabbas. The crowd responds, Congregation: Give us Barabbas!

Leader: Pilate asks, "What should be done with Jesus who is called the Messiah?"

Congregation: Crucify him!

Leader: Jesus is mocked, beaten, a crown of thorns viciously pressed into his brow. Forced to carry the tool of his own execution, he stumbles. Nails are driven through his feet and hands. The cross is raised before the glaring crowd—his charges clearly visible.

Congregation: The King of the Jews.

Leader: Soldiers cast lots for his clothes. He thirsts and is given vinegar. He cries out in desperation, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me." He gives up his spirit.

Congregation: It is finished.

Leader: Days later, the women head to a borrowed tomb where his body has been placed, but the large stone blocking the tomb has been rolled away. His body is gone, and in its place are nicely folded burial clothes. An angel speaks:

Congregation: "Don't be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here."

Leader: He's alive! He's alive! Christ the Lord is risen today. He has conquered death!

Congregation: Why do you stand gazing? This same Jesus will come again in like manner—to receive us to Himself.
