*For I was hungry..
and you gave me food.
I was thirsty..
and you gave me drink.
I was a stranger
and you welcomed me.
Matthew 25:35*

To our friends at Carmichael Adventist Church:

As we recognize that five years have passed since the Camp Fire of November 8, 2018, we want to take this opportunity to share our deep and abiding gratitude for you.

Your comforting embrace, welcoming faces, generosity, and strength provided us with courage when we needed it most.

Every act of selflessness was a blessing and a gift, and you demonstrated to us the true meaning of sharing The love of Jesus to those in need.

While words can never adequately express what your kindnesses have meant to us, we know that God will one day show you the, far-reaching effect you have had on others by your words and your actions.

Thank you.
