"Rich Toward God"

Luke 12:13–21 & 1 Timothy 6:17–19

Dr. Dan Doriani

1. Jesus addresses discipleship and wealth. (12:1–15)
  - A man has money problems
  - Possessions are not the essence of life
2. Jesus tells a parable about money problems. (12:16–20)
  - The Hedonist credo
  - Life is a loan
3. Jesus teaches us about wealth.
4. Jesus calls for generosity.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR GROUPS:

1. What was especially striking to you in Jesus' word on wealth and generosity?
2. Do you ever think or act as if life revolves around possessions?
3. How is it that the rich and the poor can have the same sorts of spiritual problems with money?
4. Are you a generous person? Do you ever wish you were more generous? How could you become more generous?
5. Is the Lord generous to you? Count the ways; and your response.
