“Living Sacrifices”

Romans 12:1–2

Dr. Dan Doriani

1. Let us name the gifts of God. (Romans 1–11)

2. We respond to God's gifts by presenting our bodies to Him. (12:1)

Living, holy, and well-pleasing to God.

This is reasonable.

3. We present ourselves to God: the means. (12:2)

We break with this age.

Examples of breaking with this age.

We are transformed by the renewal of our minds.

4. The blessed result of a transformed mind. (12:2)

5. The gospel motivates the Christian life. (12:1–2)

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR GROUPS:

1. Recount God's mercies together. Of His mercies, which ones most powerfully motivate you to give yourself to Him?
2. Do you agree that the faith seems reasonable? What do you do when our faith seems unreasonable or hard to accept?
3. How are you responding to God's mercies to please the Lord rather than yourself?
4. What are the practices that enable you to serve the Lord with your body?
5. What are the practices that enable you to serve the Lord with your mind? How are you breaking with the spirit or mindset of our age?
