“The One Who Gives Freely”

Proverbs 11:23–31

Dr. Scott Redd, Pastor

1. The Heart of Generosity

- Biblical generosity is a blessing to the one who gives.

2. The Goal of Generosity

- Biblical generosity returns a reward greater than the gift.

3. The God of Generosity

- Biblical generosity reflects the extravagant gifts of the God from whom all blessings flow.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. Sometimes gifts can feel like a transaction where something else is expected in response. Have you experienced how a gift of time, talent, or treasure can be a joy in itself? If so, when?
2. How can you be more strategic and thoughtful about the way that you care for those around you through generosity? Are there places where you need to spend more time with a person or group of people? Where could your expertise or talents be of need? Where do you see a material need that you can help with?
3. What role does the church play in your generosity? Do you see generosity as a part of the worship of God?
