1 John 4:7–21

Rev. Rob Looper, National & Revitalization Pastor

The Gospel defines and empowers the love of God.

I. In the Gospel God’s love pursues sinners like us.

A. By removing the obstacles to His love. (1 John 4:10)

B. By cleansing us from all unrighteousness (1 John 4:17, 18; cf 1:9)

II. In the Gospel God’s love sacrifices.

A. By giving what is most needed. (1 John 4:9, 10)

B. By giving what is most valuable. (1 John 4:9, 3:16; cf John 3:16)

III. In the Gospel God’s love commits.

A. By assuring us His love remains with us. (1 John 4:12, 16)

B. By making us able to love like He loves. (1 John 4:11, 12, 19-21; Phil. 2:1-7)

C. By never failing. (1 John 4:12; cf John 13:1; 1 Cor. 13:8)
