DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR GROUPS:

1. What can the law, including our efforts to keep the law, provide for us? What can't the law provide?
2. Paul suggests that people want to make "religions" difficult. Why do we do that? How do we do it? What is the remedy for that?
3. Why is it necessary to confess our faith? Why do we need to express it verbally? What do you learn from the story of Victorinus? How does this passage guide our speech?
4. Consider the promise "Anyone who trusts in Him will never be put to shame." Summarize, if you can, everything that this offer presents. Why is this promise so valuable, so encouraging?
5. If you are investigating the faith, what does this part of the Bible say to you? If you are a believer, how does it shape the way you share your faith with others?
