“The Lord God and the gods”

Matthew 19:16–26

Dr. Dan Doriani

1. A man asks how to earn eternal life. (19:16)

2. Jesus tells a legalist to obey God's laws! (19:17–19)

3. Jesus commands a rich man to sell everything and follow Him. (19:20–22)
 - “Sell all” then and now

 - Why the rich man refuses

4. Who then can be saved? (19:23–26)
 - The heart and hands of faith

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR GROUPS:

1. What does this passage teach about the way Jesus deals with people?
What can you learn from his conversation with the rich young man, especially about conversation with unbelievers?
2. Why does Jesus tell a young legalist to obey the law?
3. Why does Jesus tell this one man to sell everything? How does the call to sell all speak to us as stewards of the wealth God bestows?
As people called to follow a generous Lord?
4. How important is material wealth to you?
5. How would you define true wealth?
