

Isaiah 9:6

“Unto Us a Child is Born”

Pastor Bruce Zachary

Intro. Christmas should be the most wonderful time of the year. It can be a special time for family, traditions, and giving and receiving of gifts. Most of us have at least a few gifts that we’d like to receive, and most of us realize that none of those gifts are likely to bring real satisfaction. Yet, is there a gift that is so amazing that you could discover true contentment that would not depend on your circumstances? Why is Christmas truly so wonderful? What is the gift that brings true contentment? How can you receive that gift? The prophet Isaiah, helps us to discover the answers with these familiar words:

For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace” [Is.9:6].

Subject: The Birth of Jesus

Object: Discover contentment in Christ

Context: Israel had been oppressed by the Assyrians and life was very difficult, but hope was coming. In the midst of darkness, a light was on the horizon [Is. 9:1-5].

Why is Jesus the greatest gift ever?

“Unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given ...” Not only to the Jews, but to all of humanity [Jn. 3:16], and this gift is available to you. The gift comes in a humble package, a Child born in a manger. God’s gift did not appear as a full-grown man in a royal setting, nor an angel shining the radiant glory of God, but a human Child. The incarnation is the glorious truth that God became flesh and dwelt among us [Is. 7:14, Jn.1:14]. God moved into the neighborhood so you could better relate to Him and He could better relate to you. The idea that the government will be upon His shoulder sounds so strange when you imagine a baby’s tiny shoulders. Yet, all authority in heaven and on earth would be exercised by that Child [Matt. 28:18]. He is the One who ultimately will reign as King of kings and Lord of lords [Rev. 19:16]. And He is unlike any other Sovereign. His rule will be pure without corruption, perfect in that He truly knows what is best, and sacrificial in that He comes to serve us not to be served by us, and to give His life for us so that we can live [Mk. 10:44-45].

We are told that His name will be called many things. From a Jewish perspective, a name reveals aspects of a person’s character, nature, who he is and what he does or will do. Here, we focus on five aspects of Christ’s nature:

Wonderful: He will be called “Wonderful” in the sense that He is awesome and beyond our ability to fully comprehend, or fully describe. Any words that used to describe Him diminish all that He truly is. Only a truly awesome and wonderful God can truly satisfy.

Counselor: He will be called “Counselor” because He is uniquely able to guide our lives since He is the wisdom of God personified [Jn. 1:14, 14:6]. We need a true compass to guide our lives, because we tend to look for contentment in all the wrong places.

Mighty God: He will be called “Mighty God” revealing that this Child is not only human but is in fact Almighty God with unlimited power [Rev.1:8]. How comforting it is to know that our God is greater than our problems.

Everlasting Father: He shall be called “Everlasting Father” because He is eternal, existed before our universe and before time came into being. He is the author of all eternity. The fact that I know that I will spend eternity with Him brings contentment even in difficult seasons of this life.

Prince of Peace: And He is the “Prince of Peace” because He is the One who creates and preserves peace between God and man. The Hebrew word that we translate as “peace” is shalom. Shalom relates to contentment or wholeness, and is more than the absence of conflict. This Child brings contentment because He is “Immanuel” that is God with us [Is. 7:14, Matt. 1:22-23], and “Jesus” because He will save His people from their sins [Matt. 1:21].

You can experience contentment because you can make peace with God and experience the peace of God that is the greatest gift ever!

How can you receive God’s gift?

But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name [Jn. 1:12].

All people are God’s offspring, but only followers of Jesus have the unique identity as children of God. Your contentment flows from understanding and experiencing your identity as God’s child. To believe is not merely mental assent, but receive and believe are verbs, and the action required is to yield your will to God’s authority. When you do that, God has promised to forgive you of your sin that separates you and God; and to give you His Holy Spirit so that you can experience spiritual life with God. Contentment flows from choosing to follow Jesus and continuing to grow in Him.

What’s your next step? For all of us the key to contentment is to make Jesus the priority.

Receive: Today you can receive the gift of Jesus and His salvation.

Remember: The more you reflect upon God’s gift of Jesus, and learn of Him and from Him the more content you will be.

Return: Some of you inevitably have drifted, and your level of contentment has diminished. Today, Jesus invites you to return to Him.

We encourage each of you to find a healthy Bible-teaching home church home if you haven’t already, and become involved with others who are seeking to grow in Christ. For as you grow in Christ, you will grow in contentment.

Study Guide Qs

Q1. What are some of your favorite Christmas traditions?

Q2. How have you discovered contentment in Christ that is different than any other source of contentment?

Q3. How would you explain to someone what it means to follow Jesus?
