The church is a community who cares

And all the believers met together in one place and shared everything they had. They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need. Acts 2:44–45 (NLT)

Jesus: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Matthew 22:39 (NLT)

John 13:1-17 (NLT)

<sup>1</sup> Before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father. He had loved his disciples during his ministry on earth, and now he loved them to the very end.

<sup>2</sup> It was time for supper, and the devil had already prompted Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. <sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. <sup>4</sup> So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, <sup>5</sup> and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples’ feet, drying them with the towel he had around him.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” <sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, “You don’t understand now what I am doing, but someday you will. <sup>8</sup> “No,” Peter protested, “you will never ever wash my feet!” Jesus replied, “Unless I wash you, you won’t belong to me.”

<sup>9</sup> Simon Peter exclaimed, “Then wash my hands and head as well, Lord, not just my feet!” <sup>10</sup> Jesus replied, “A person who has bathed all over does not need to wash, except for the feet, to be entirely clean. And you disciples are clean, but not all of you.” <sup>11</sup> For Jesus knew who would betray him. That is what he meant when he said, “Not all of you are clean.”

<sup>12</sup> After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, “Do you understand what I was doing? <sup>13</sup> You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are right, because that’s what I am.

<sup>14</sup> And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other’s feet.

<sup>15</sup> I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup> I tell you the truth, slaves are not greater than their master. Nor is the messenger more important than the one who sends the message. <sup>17</sup> Now that you know these things, God will bless you for doing them. John 13:1-17 (NLT)

1. The Christian is _____ to by service

When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” Jesus replied, “You don’t understand now what I am doing, but someday you will.” “No,” Peter protested, “you will never ever wash my feet!” Jesus replied, “Unless I wash you, you won’t belong to me.” John 13:6-8 (NLT)

2. The Christian is _____ for service

God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another. Do you have the gift of speaking? Then speak as though God himself were speaking through you. Do you have the gift of helping others? Do it with all the strength and energy that God supplies. Then everything you do will bring glory to God through Jesus Christ. 1 Peter 4:10-11 (NLT)

3. The Christian is _____ by God through serving

So the people came streaming from the village to see him. <sup>31</sup> Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus, “Rabbi, eat something.” <sup>32</sup> But Jesus replied, “I have a kind of food you know nothing about.” <sup>33</sup> “Did someone bring him food while we were gone?” the disciples asked each other. <sup>34</sup> Then Jesus explained: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work.” John 4:30-34 (NLT)

4. The Christian is _____ by Jesus to serve

And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other’s feet. I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. John 13:14-15 (NLT)

When I refuse to serve Christ by serving _____,
I have made myself the Lord and made it _____.

Our children will also serve him. Future generations will hear about the wonders of the Lord. His righteous acts will be told to those not yet born. They will hear about everything he has done.

Psalm 22:30-31 (NLT)

1. The Christian is ministered to by service

When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” Jesus replied, “You don’t understand now what I am doing, but someday you will.” “No,” Peter protested, “you will never ever wash my feet!” Jesus replied, “Unless I wash you, you won’t belong to me.” John 13:6-8 (NLT)

2. The Christian is gifted for service

God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another. Do you have the gift of speaking? Then speak as though God himself were speaking through you. Do you have the gift of helping others? Do it with all the strength and energy that God supplies. Then everything you do will bring glory to God through Jesus Christ. 1 Peter 4:10-11 (NLT)

3. The Christian is filled by God through serving

So the people came streaming from the village to see him. <sup>31</sup> Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus, “Rabbi, eat something.” <sup>32</sup> But Jesus replied, “I have a kind of food you know nothing about.” <sup>33</sup> “Did someone bring him food while we were gone?” the disciples asked each other. <sup>34</sup> Then Jesus explained: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work.” John 4:30-34 (NLT)

4. The Christian is commanded by Jesus to serve

And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other’s feet. I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. John 13:14-15 (NLT)

When I refuse to serve Christ by serving His church,

I have made myself the Lord and made it my church.

Our children will also serve him. Future generations will hear about the wonders of the Lord. His righteous acts will be told to those not yet born. They will hear about everything he has done.
