

Unlikely Heroes: Deborah

Hero

Deborah

Lesson

Judges 4, 5:1-5

Once again God's people, the Israelites, were disobedient and they were in trouble. There was an army with 900 chariots coming to fight them. God chose to use Deborah, a woman, to help his people. Deborah delivered a message from God to the commander of the Israelite army but he was too afraid, so he asked Deborah to help him. The commander and Deborah met at the top of the mountain and when the army with 900 chariots was coming, Deborah told them to go and that God would help them. They did and something incredible happened! There was a thunderstorm that confused the army and their chariots got stuck in the mud! God helped them win the battle.
