

July 21 Sermon Notes

I. The Principle of Separation – “Draw near to Me.”

James 4:8

Joshua teaches the principle of separation. Joshua 23:2 – 3, 6 – 8, 9 – 14

God’s command to love the Lord is based upon his overwhelming grace to us.

How do you know if you are no longer drawing near to God? Verse 12 – 13

2 Corinthians 6:17 – what are the values of the world?

II. The Principle of Worship – “Draw near to Me.” Chapter 24

In verses 1 – 13, count how often God uses the personal pronoun I?

Verse 14 call to action.

Verse 15 “Choose for yourself this day whom you will serve.”

Everyone is serving Jesus or another God. Romans 6:15 – 16

Verse 15c is what every man should say.

Why does Joshua call God a jealous God?

To draw near to God, you must apply two principles.

Principle of separation

Principle of worship.
