Senior Pastor: Dr. Bruce Speer

Remember, Job was faithful during this unjustified time of suffering.

Faithful does not mean perfect.

I. The Three Amigos Job 2: 11 – 13

What to do and say when you visit a friend who is suffering.

- 1. Friends come without being asked.*
- 2. Friends come ready to show sympathy and comfort.*
- 3. Friends are not turned off by distasteful sights.*
- 4. Friends understand, so they say very little.*
- 5. Friends don't say, "I know how you feel."*

II. Words From a Broken Man Job 3:3 – 26

Job regrets his birth verses 1 – 10

Job wishes he had died at birth verses 11 – 19

Job longs to die verses 20 – 26

III. A summary of chapters 4 – 37

3 Lessons to Remember:

- Remember, people can respond with very cruel words to those who are in pain.
- Remember, people will support their arguments with experience, tradition, and their knowledge.
- Remember, people who are filled with bitterness can never clearly see the love of God.
