The Power of Trust part 38

"Trust God When He Disrupts Your Assumptions"

Principle – Trust is proven when God challenges our assumptions, delays our expectations, and we still submit to His Authority.

Life teaches us that sometimes good comes from pain.

"God sometimes permits what he hates to accomplish what he loves."

I. Jesus challenges Their Assumptions. Verses 1 – 5

Verses 1 – 9 illustrate that tragic events are a natural consequence of a world polluted by sin.

John 16:33

God wants to know how much you trust him. When unexpected tragedy takes place, how do you respond?

II. Trust God's patience – but don't presume on it. Verses 6 – 9

God required Israel to be fruitful. They refused, and so God brought destruction in 70 A.D.

God's expectation for his people today is to be fruitful.
John 15:1 – 2, 6 – 8

The parable of the barren fig tree shows grace with the deadline.

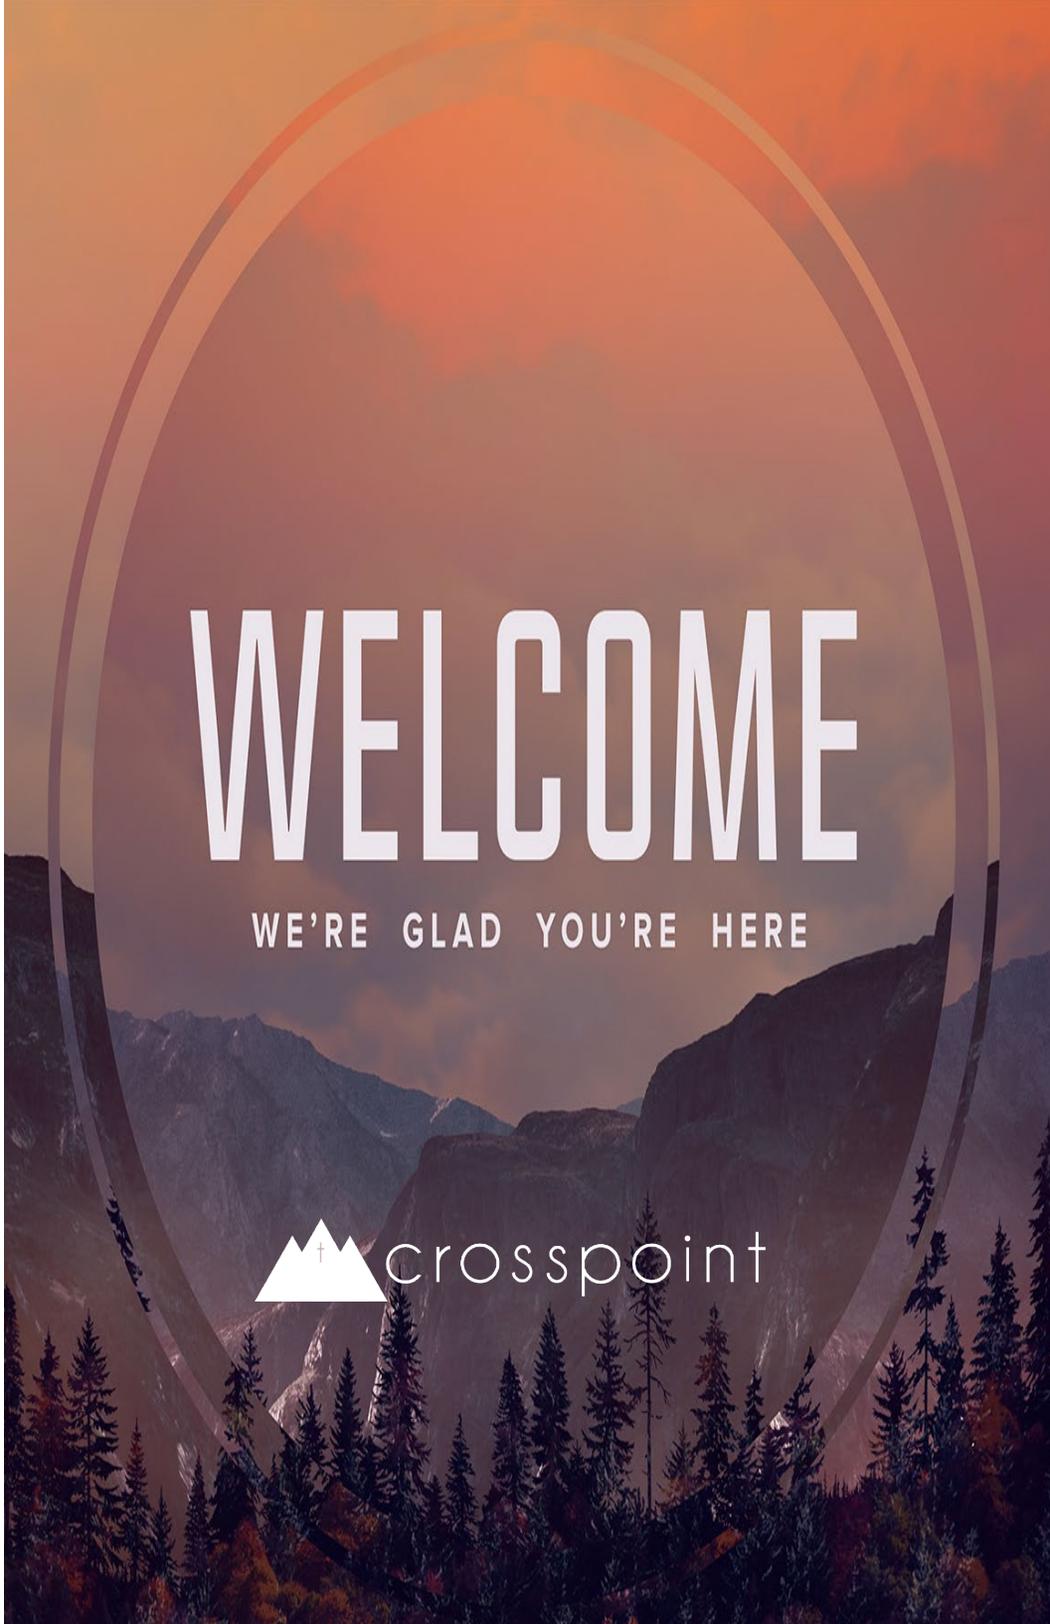

III. Trust God's heart over man-made rules. Luke 13:10 – 17

Never forget that the world hates Jesus, so the world will hate you if you live for Jesus. John 15:18 – 20, 2nd Timothy 3:12.

Religion only focuses on its rules. Verses 11 – 13

Jesus picks a fight with the religious hypocrites. Verses 14 – 17

Why do people ignore emergency warnings?
