

God wants to speak to you.

Have you ever felt like you've heard from God? What was that experience like?

For many of us, the Bible is full of verses, passages, and stories that have played an important role in our lives. It's almost like there's a growing number of "friends" in Scripture that we can come back to that remind us of God's faithfulness. Make a list of these special verses below:

What would you like God to speak to you about?	If he did, what would change in your life?
------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------

Pause and listen right now. Sit quietly, maybe with your Bible, and ask God to bring something to mind that He wants to talk to you about—whether it's something new or something you've been processing for a while. Then write down whatever thoughts come to mind. It could be that a thought passing through your mind is actually God speaking to you!

VERSES FROM THE VIDEO

John 6v28-29

²⁸They replied, "We want to perform God's works, too. What should we do?"

²⁹Jesus told them, "This is the only work God wants from you: Believe in the one he has sent."

John 10v3-4

³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep recognize his voice and come to him. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴After he has gathered his own flock, he walks ahead of them, and they follow him because they know his voice.

Romans 12v2

²Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.

Mark 1v15

¹⁵"The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!"