

Prophecy Update 6-9-2023

2 Thessalonians 2:9-12

The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10 and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, 12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

We know there is coming a time, very soon, that will cause people to question what they believe in. This will be the great deception mentioned here. This has always been a problem throughout history but is becoming more evident lately. Just the statement “Conspiracy Theory” is false because we know there is a conspiracy. This week has proved it in many things being uncovered that we have been talking about for a long time.

As we have been saying all along about the “you know what’s” that they have forced upon the masses and they guaranteed were the safest in history turn out to be just the opposite. As this twitter post says

“Three separate labs across the globe have now found the #mRNA #vaccines... are heavily contaminated with DNA plasmids... These DNA plasmids can infect the e. Coli in your gut & make your gut a perpetual spike factory.”

What?

<https://rumble.com/v2owij0-why-the-covid-mrna-vaccines-are-actually-dna-gene-therapies-that-must-be-re.html>

Let’s just say that they have found out that this rush to produce was very unsafe and lacked needed quality control. After all we were all going to die, remember?

We were told that the WHO agreement that would give us over to global government was a Conspiracy Theory. Was it?

Here is Dr. Mercola's summary of about 300 amendments the WHO wants to the International Health Regulations (IHRs):

Expand the definitions of pandemics and health emergencies. Specifically, it introduces 'potential for harm' rather than actual harm. So, the WHO can mandate lockdowns or medical interventions based on the mere suspicion that a virus might cause public harm. Change the recommendations of the IHR from nonbinding to mandatory, so member states must follow and implement the WHO's recommendations.

Solidify the director-general's ability to independently and single-handedly declare health emergencies.

Set up an extensive surveillance apparatus in all member states.

Enable the WHO to share country data without consent.

Give the WHO control over certain resources within member countries, including intellectual property rights.

Force national support for censorship activities directed by the WHO.

Change existing IHR provisions that affect individuals from nonbinding to binding, including provisions relating to border closures, travel restrictions, quarantines, medical examinations and the medication and vaccination of individuals.

Here is Dr. Mercola's summary of the International Pandemic Treaty that the WHO is pushing:

Set up an international supply network overseen by the WHO.

Fund the WHO's health emergency structures and processes by requiring at least 5 percent of national health budgets to be dedicated to health emergencies.

Set up a governing body under the auspice of the WHO to oversee the entire health emergency process.

Expand scope of the WHO's power by emphasizing the 'One Health' agenda, which recognizes that a very broad range of aspects of life and the environment can impact health and therefore fall under the 'potential' to cause harm. This is how the WHO will be able to declare climate change as a health emergency and subsequently require climate lockdowns, for example.

The WHO wants world leaders to make these things global law in May 2024.

What about the war in Ukraine? We are told they have Russia on the run, but do they?

<https://www.reuters.com/world/europe/ukraine-says-russia-blows-up-major-nova-kakhovka-dam-southern-ukraine-2023-06-06/>

Major dam breached in southern Ukraine, unleashing floodwaters

A major Soviet-era dam in the Russian controlled part of southern Ukraine was breached on Tuesday, unleashing floodwaters across the war zone in what both Ukraine and Russia said was an intentional attack by the other's forces.

Unverified videos on social media showed water surging through the remains of the dam with bystanders expressing their shock, sometimes in strong language. Water levels raced up by metres in a matter of hours.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskiy blamed Russia for the damage.

"The destruction of the Kakhovka hydroelectric power plant dam only confirms for the whole world that they must be expelled from every corner of Ukrainian land," Zelenskiy wrote on the Telegram messaging app.

Ukraine's military said that Russian forces blew up the dam.

Russian-installed officials in Kherson said Ukraine struck the dam at 2300 GMT several times, destroying the hydraulic valves of the hydroelectric power station but said the dam was not totally destroyed.

We can grab another clue last December's Washington Post, which ran a story describing in glorious detail how the Ukrainians worked out the best way to destroy the Kakhova dam, "as a last resort":

The two bridges were targeted with U.S.-supplied M142 High Mobility Artillery Rocket Systems — or HIMARS launchers, which have a range of 50 miles — and were quickly rendered impassable.

“There were moments when we turned off their supply lines completely, and they still managed to build crossings,” Kovalchuk said. “They managed to replenish ammunition. ... It was very difficult.”

Kovalchuk considered flooding the river. The Ukrainians, he said, even conducted a test strike with a HIMARS launcher on one of the floodgates at the Nova Kakhovka dam, making three holes in the metal to see if the Dnieper’s water could be raised enough to stymie Russian crossings but not flood nearby villages.

The test was a success, Kovalchuk said, but the step remained a last resort. He held off.

We saw after an offensive by Russia on an ammunition factory that the Ukrainians did this:

Drone attack in Moscow may have targeted homes of Russian intelligence officials, U.S. officials say

The drones appeared to target suspected homes of officers with Russia's Foreign Intelligence Service, the SVR. A Ukrainian official said Ukraine was not "directly" involved.

A drone attack in Moscow last week appeared to target the homes of Russian intelligence officers, the latest salvo in a psychological campaign against Russian President Vladimir Putin’s regime over its invasion of Ukraine, multiple sources familiar with the strikes said.

The drone assault Tuesday was the first on a residential area in the capital since Russian forces launched an invasion of Ukraine on Feb. 24, 2022.

They were not very effective. And then there is this...

Nazi Symbols on Ukraine's Front Lines Highlight Thorny Issues of History
Troops' use of patches bearing Nazi emblems risks fueling Russian propaganda and spreading imagery that the West has spent a half-century trying to eliminate.

The iconography of these groups, including a skull-and-crossbones patch worn by concentration camp guards and a symbol known as the Black Sun, now appears with some regularity on the uniforms of soldiers fighting on the front line, including soldiers who say the imagery symbolizes Ukrainian sovereignty and pride, not Nazism.

In April, Ukraine's Defense Ministry posted a photograph on its Twitter account of a soldier wearing a patch featuring a skull and crossbones known as the Totenkopf, or Death's Head. The specific symbol in the picture was made notorious by a Nazi unit that committed war crimes and guarded concentration camps during World War II.

The patch in the photograph sets the Totenkopf atop a Ukrainian flag with a small No. 6 below.

So, these are the good guys, right? How are we supposed to know? As we have been saying all along this is a proxy war that has a globalist agenda in mind.

And finally, we see this startling article to come out that is something that is actually not new...

"There Is A Sophisticated Disinformation Campaign Targeting The U.S. Populace Which Is Extremely Unethical And Immoral"

Highly advanced aircraft of unknown origin have been flying around in our skies for a long time, and now a whistleblower has come forward with claims that the U.S. government has actually been able to retrieve "intact and partially intact vehicles". If what is he is alleging turns out to be accurate, it has the potential to change everything. But this whistleblower is also warning that there has been a concerted effort by elements inside the intelligence community to keep this information away from Congress and away from the U.S. population as a whole. They don't want us to know the truth, and that should greatly alarm all of us.

This week, 36-year-old David Charles Grusch made headlines all over the world when he started telling news outlets what he learned as a member of the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency and National Reconnaissance Office...

David Charles Grusch, a veteran and former member of the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency and National Reconnaissance Office, has blown the whistle on this information, speaking with several news outlets about the crafts.

"These are retrieving non-human origin technical vehicles, call it a spacecraft if you will, non-human exotic origin vehicles that have either landed or crashed," Mr Grusch told NewsNationNow.

If the U.S. government really has retrieved "non-human exotic origin vehicles that have either landed or crashed", why can't we see them?

What are they trying to hide?

According to Grusch, the recoveries that the U.S. government has made over the years include "intact and partially intact vehicles"...

"We are not talking about prosaic origins or identities," Grusch said. "The material includes intact and partially intact vehicles."

Grusch told the Debrief that analysis determined that this material is "of exotic origin" – meaning "non-human intelligence, whether extraterrestrial or unknown origin".

"[This assessment is] based on the vehicle morphologies and material science testing and the possession of unique atomic arrangements and radiological signatures," Grusch said.

An unclassified version of the complaint provided to us states that Grusch has direct knowledge that UAP-related classified information has been withheld and/or concealed from Congress by "elements" of the intelligence community "to purposely and intentionally thwart legitimate Congressional oversight of the UAP Program." All testimony Grusch provided for the classified complaint was provided under oath.

We know this is a demonic deception that is being fed to the public to get people to question what they believe. Let's say you hear on the news tomorrow that an alien aircraft has landed somewhere in America and has contacted us. By some unknown technology of theirs they are able to communicate with us and said they are our ancestors. That long ago they began our civilization and have come to rescue us from ourselves. Would you believe them? You know what the Bible says but here is a physical being saying who they are. You need to know they are not who they say they are! The Bible is clear!

2 Corinthians 11:13-15

For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. 14 And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

Who is that?

2 Corinthians 11:3-4

But I fear, lest somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so your minds may be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 4 For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted—you may well put up with it!

Do you see that? They come with an answer, they say that what you believe is not true, where do they come from? The Devil!

That leaves us with a thought. If they are preparing the world for "Full Disclosure" how would that be possible with Born Again Spirit Filled Believers around?

Remember we read...

Mark 13:22

For false Christs and false prophets will rise and show signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect.

It's not possible and also we read later in Mark

Mark 16:17

And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons...

If that is the case then we cannot be here for full disclosure! So, as we see it coming and s=being prepared for the masses we know that the day of our redemption is at hand!
