Evangelical Mike Johnson 'Raised Up' as House Speaker

After weeks of jockeying in Congress, Republicans voted in the Bible-quoting Louisiana Southern Baptist.

After weeks of turmoil, House Republicans elected Rep. Mike Johnson on Wednesday as the new speaker of the House, an act the Louisiana congressman suggested was ordained by God.

“I believe that Scripture, the Bible, is very clear: that God is the one who raises up those in authority,” Johnson said in his first speech after being elected speaker in a 220–209 vote. “He raised up each of you. All of us.”

Johnson, an evangelical Christian, peppered his remarks with religious references. He recounted the history of how the motto “In God We Trust” was placed in the House chamber—a rebuke of communism, which many associated with atheism—and highlighted the Declaration of Independence’s use of “Creator.” He also noted the presence of Moses on the wall of the House chamber.

“Through adversity, it makes you stronger,” he said, referencing the three-week period in October that it took Republicans to elect a new speaker to replace the ousted Speaker Kevin McCarthy.

In a later speech on the Capitol steps, Johnson framed his leadership goals by citing Romans 5:3–4.

“I was reminded of the Scripture that says ‘Suffering produces perseverance, perseverance produces character, and character produces hope,’” he said. “What we need in this country is more hope.”

Johnson has been tied to multiple Baptist churches over the years and currently attends Cypress Baptist Church in Benton, Louisiana, according to the Louisiana Baptist Message. He is also a former lawyer and communications staffer with the Alliance Defense Fund, which later became known as Alliance Defending Freedom, a conservative Christian legal firm.

Johnson’s victory was celebrated by Brent Leatherwood, head of the Southern Baptist Convention’s Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission. Johnson served on the commission’s board from 2004 to 2012.

Well, We Have a Speaker. He’s an Election Denier and an Extreme Christian Fundamentalist.

Johnson previously worked as senior attorney and spokesperson for Alliance Defending Freedom, or ADF, a Southern Poverty Law Center–designated hate group that pushes its far-right agenda through the courts. Johnson is also an evangelical Christian who has said, “My faith informs everything I do.” That may include his history of using extreme, homophobic language. CNN uncovered some of his previous rhetoric, which includes calling homosexuality “inherently unnatural” and a “dangerous lifestyle” that would lead to legalized pedophilia and could destroy “the entire democratic system.”

Hamas delegation, Iranian deputy FM meet Russian officials in Moscow

Hamas representatives are in Moscow, according to Russian Foreign Ministry Spokeswoman Maria Zakharova.

“I can also say and confirm that representatives of the relevant Palestinian movement are on a visit to Moscow,” she says in a briefing, reported by the Russian RIA Novosti outlet.

The outlet had earlier reported that Hamas politburo member Moussa Abu Marzuk was leading the delegation.

Zakharova says that Iranian deputy foreign minister Ali Bagheri Kani is in Moscow as well.

Erdogan Cancels Israel Visit, Says Hamas Is a 'Liberation Group'

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said on Wednesday that Hamas is not a terrorist organization, but is “mujahideen” defending their homeland.

Israel “can view Hamas as a terrorist organization, along with the West,” said Erdogan, speaking to a gathering of his AK Party faction in parliament. “The West owes you a lot. But Turkey does not owe you anything.”

“Hamas is not a terrorist organization, it is a group of mujahideen defending their lands,” he said to a standing ovation. “Mujahideen” is an Arabic term for those engaged in jihad, or holy war.

Erdogan also told the AKP forum on Wednesday he is canceling plans to visit Israel because of its “inhumane” war.

“We had a project to go to Israel, but it was canceled, we will not go,” Erdogan said.

Meanwhile, Turkey's Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan, speaking in Qatar, accused Israel of "a crime against humanity" in its campaign in Gaza.

Iranians desecrated tombs of Mordechai and Esther, Jews asking for protection
Residents of the Hamadan province, site of graves of Mordechai and Esther, demonstrated, burned Israeli flags and desecrated the site.

In light of the war in Gaza following the Hamas attack on southern Israel on October 7, residents of the Hamadan province in Iran, where the graves of Mordechai and Esther are located, burned Israeli flags and desecrated the site where the Biblical figures are buried.

The locals didn't stop there and sent a letter to the Ministry of Culture in which they demanded to turn the place into a public site.

They claimed that the building should be turned into a "Museum of the crimes of the Zionist regime" and a public relations office with the "Palestinian resistance forces" should be established in the place.

Lewiston, Maine mass shootings leave 18 dead as manhunt underway for suspect Robert Card
Maine State Police say suspect Robert Card carried out a mass shooting at two different locations, leaving at least 18 dead and 13 injured

The mass shootings took place in Lewiston at Schemengees Bar and Grille and the Just-In-Time Recreation bowling alley, just 4 miles away

The family of Robert Card, the man accused of shooting and killing 18 people in Lewiston, Maine, have shared several details with police about Robert's "acute" mental health episodes the months leading up to the mass shooting.

In an exclusive report, NBC News reported Katie Card who is married to Robert's brother, shared that Robert began to hear "horrible" voices talking about him just shortly after he was "fitted for high-powered hearing aids."

Katie Card told NBC "He was picking up voices that he had never heard.

She continued "His mind was twisting them around. He was humiliated by the things that he thought were being said."

The shooter today in Maine complained of hearing voices in his head.

In 2013 a man took 3 hostages at a bank in Louisiana, killing 2 before being killed by cops. Months earlier, he was interviewed by the FBI & DHS. He told them that he was hearing voices.

Congressman Allard Lowenstein wanted to reopen an investigation into the assassination of Robert Kennedy. Lowenstein was killed in 1980 by a man who said he received messages in his head broadcast by a CIA transmitter.

In August a guy murdered two kids (one of whom was a tiktok star) on a date in a movie theater in Corona, California. He said it was precipitated by voices that he had started hearing about 8 months earlier.

On September 5th 2021 a Marine killed 4 people, including a baby, in Florida--his gf says that he developed the belief that he could "talk to god" over the past week or so.

Noah Green, the guy that rammed the capitol police officers, said "he believed the federal government was targeting him with 'mind control.'"

Jared Loughner, the guy that shot Gabby Giffords and killed 6 others in AZ, told a psychic that he heard voices compelling him to violence.

Connor Betts, who murdered 9 people outside of a bar in Dayton, OH, heard voices in his head from childhood on.

Aaron Alexis, a former Naval reservist and military contractor, heard voices in his head that he attributed to extremely low frequency EM prior to killing 12 people in Naval Sea Systems Command at Washington Navy Yard.

Nikolas Cruz, the Parkland shooter, said he heard voices for most of his life that pushed him to violence.

Tamerlan Tsarnaev complained of voices in his head telling him to do bad things just before the Boston bombing.

Paddock said that the government could hack into his head and control him.

Esteban Santiago-Ruiz complained of voices in his head and claimed the CIA was forcing him to watch ISIS videos before he killed a bunch of people at an airport.

SILENT SOUNDS TECHNOLOGIES

MIND CONTROL WITH SILENT SOUNDS

The mind-altering mechanism is based on a subliminal carrier technology: the Silent Sound Spread Spectrum (SSSS sometimes called "S-quad" or "Squad". It was developed by Oliver Lowery of Norcross, Georgia, and is described in Patent #5,159,703, "Silent Subliminal Presentation System", dated, October 27, 1992. The abstract for the patent reads: "

A silent communications system in which nonaural carriers, in the very low or very high audio-frequency range or in the adjacent ultrasonic frequency spectrum are amplitude- or frequency modulated with the desired intelligence and propagated acoustically for inducement into the brain, typically through the use of loudspeakers, earphones or piezoelectric transducers. The modulated carriers may be transmitted directly in real time or may be conveniently recorded and stored on mechanical, magnetic, or optical media for delayed or repeated transmission to the listener."

I first became aware of Allan Frey's work at Willow Grove in 1972, just after completing "The Holographic Concept of Reality." I was working with Dr. Carl Scheicher (MRU) at the time, and was asked about the significance of this work. Realizing its possible use in mind control, my first reaction was to go on "red alert."

Full significance was not yet understood at this time. Basically, Frey had discovered another sensory motor input in the higher blue-band frequencies of 0.3-3.0 GHz. - at very low amplitudes of power. It was "as if" we had another type of "vision," but did not know how to "see" what was being received. It constituted the next generation of subliminal communications.

My work at the time was involved with an AI database for paranormal references (Project Parafile). A second paper was also presented at the Omniversal Symposium, California State College at Sonoma, (September 29, 1973). This was titled "Embryonic Holography," and was an application of the "Holographic Concept of Reality" model. It dealt with biogenesis and neurological regeneration, and included speculation on the origins of cancer, faith healing, psychic surgery and more technical aspects of mind-body energetics.

Clinton: Re-education Camps for Conservatives, Libertarians, and Christians

Should you be forced into a re-education camp because of your personal beliefs?

Re-education camps are now being the radical socialist's solution to transform our culture, economy, and politics.

Now, Hillary Clinton is advocating re-educating anyone who disagrees with her radical socialist agenda and policies – That goes for political opponents, as well as the public, including conservatives, libertarians, and Christians.

The is new to America, but not overseas.

Free speech worldwide is under assault.

It's been happening in Communist China.

It's been happening in Iran.

And it's starting to happen in "democratic" countries as well.

For example, Canadian college professor and TV personality Dr. Jordan Peterson was told he must "complete mandatory social media retraining" for referring to transgender Hollywood actor Elliot [formerly Ellen] Page by female pronouns and saying the actor was 'converting' children by posing for Esquire, and for his continued criticism of Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau.

The College of Psychologists of Ontario confirmed they were investigating, saying that it had released a decision requiring Peterson to complete a Specified Continuing Education or Remedial Program (SCERP). The program is designed to address issues regarding professionalism in public statements. They claim Peterson allegedly "harmed people with his views."

Judges in these countries are now ordering people to undergo "re-education therapy" (or "government or college coaching programs") for "language used in public statements that are considered "degrading, demeaning and unprofessional," by government bureaucrats.

But could it happen in America?

So far, our 1st Amendment is standing in the way of the radical socialist and Deep State bureaucrat's plans to "reprogram extremists" as they do in Communist China and other countries... But that doesn't mean they won't stop trying.

In a rare interview moment, Hillary Clinton let the cat out of the bag about the radical left's plans for anyone who doesn't agree with their ideologies or policies.

During a recent interview with Christiane Amanpour on CNN, Clinton called Trump and MAGA (Make America Great Again) supporters "extremists" who can't be "reasoned with" and "can't work together to find common ground."

For those "extremists," Clinton suggested that there could "perhaps be a formal re-programming of the cult members [MAGA supporters]."

She also said, "We [the Democrats] need to empower the right people inside the Republican party." In other words, she wants to control which Republicans are elected— namely RINOs— [Republicans In Name Only] who will reach across the aisle and work with Democrats.

Not only does she want to "re-program" the minds of over 85 million Americans for not thinking the way she does, but she also wants to ensure only the "right" Republicans, the ones that agree with her, get elected.

Clinton is a perfect example of the ultimate radical ideological government swamp creature protecting the swamp.

Hillary's comments remind me of a quote from George Orwell's classic novel 1984:

"Every record has been destroyed or falsified, every book rewritten, every picture has been repainted, every statue and street building has been renamed, every date has been altered. And the process is continuing day by day and minute by minute."

Prosecutor Livid After FBI Refused To Pursue 'Credible' Biden-Ukraine Corruption Allegations, Grassley Reveals 40 Informants

While January 6th protesters languish in prison for participating in a fed-filled march on the Capitol, the Biden family sits pretty atop their ivory tower as the FBI covers for their multitude of obvious crimes.

In two bombshell reports from Just the News, we learn that not only was a prosecutor livid over the FBI's "reluctance" to pursue credible claims of corrupt Biden dealings in Ukraine (the thing Democrats impeached Trump for asking about), the agency had evidence from more than 40 informants spanning

'years of investigation,' which DOJ and FBI officials sought to undermine, Sen. Chuck Grassley (R-IA) revealed in a Wednesday letter.

Hicks Discusses Replicator Initiative

The United States military must capitalize on the country's greatest asset – the unparalleled innovation of its people, Deputy Secretary of Defense Kathleen Hicks said yesterday.

Hicks spoke at the Defense News Conference in Arlington, Virginia, and outlined the steps the department must take to innovate and field new capabilities that will continue U.S. dominance in military affairs.

She spoke about the department's new "replicator" initiative and what it could mean to fielding new technologies, new capabilities and new concepts to the military.

Replicator will begin with all-domain, "attritable" autonomy to help overcome China's advantage in mass: more ships, more missiles, more forces. These capabilities "can help a determined defender stop a larger aggressor from achieving its objectives, put fewer people in the line of fire, and be made, fielded, and upgraded at the speed warfighters need without long maintenance tails," Hicks said.

Examples of these capabilities are self-piloting ships and uncrewed aircraft. "Now is the time to scale with systems that are harder to plan for, harder to hit, and harder to beat than those of potential competitors," she said.

"We've set a big goal for replicator: to field attritable, autonomous systems at a scale of multiple thousands [and] in multiple domains within the next 18-to-24 months," Hicks said. "The 'replication' isn't just about production. We also aim to replicate and inculcate how we will achieve that goal, so we can scale whatever is most efficient, effective and relevant in the future, again and again."

Hicks discussed the possibilities of all-domain, attritable autonomy. "Imagine distributed pods of self-propelled ADA2 systems afloat, powered by the sun and other virtually -limitless resources, packed with sensors aplenty, enough to give us new, reliable sources of information in near-real-time," she said. "Imagine fleets of ground-based ADA2 systems delivering novel logistics support, scouting ahead to keep troops safe or securing DOD infrastructure."

In space this will mean ADA2 systems in orbit "flung into space scores at a time, numbering so many that it becomes impossible to eliminate or degrade them all," Hicks said. "Imagine flocks of ADA2 systems flying at all sorts of altitudes, doing a range of missions, building on what we've seen in Ukraine. They could be deployed by larger aircraft, launched by troops on land or sea, or take off themselves."

These systems will create new capabilities and call for new concepts and new ways to fight, she said. "That's what 'small, smart, cheap, and many' can do," Hicks said. "Make no mistake: Replicator signals from the top that we are embarking on audacious change fast using the means we have. We face an urgent challenge, and we intend to meet it with the courage to bet big."

Squad of female IDF combat troops eliminated nearly 100 Hamas terrorists
Lt.-Col. Or Ben Yehuda, Caracal Battalion, praises her troops' bravery against Hamas, silencing doubts about female combat soldiers with their training, heroism, and life-saving actions.

Only a few have had the chance to witness the extraordinary actions of the Caracal Battalion during their battle against Hamas terrorists.

Lt.-Col. Or Ben-Yehuda, the commander of this unit, now recounts her experiences in the southern Gaza Strip, where her battalion eliminated approximately 100 terrorists. She also has a clear message for those who question the capabilities of female fighters in the Caracal (Desert Lynx) and Tank Battalion.

As the assault on the Gaza border area began, Ben-Yehuda swiftly moved from the battalion headquarters in Nahal Raviv to a post on the Egyptian border with armored personnel carriers. Rockets were raining down, and warnings arrived regarding potential terrorist infiltration in the Shlomit and Bnei Netzer towns.

In the midst of this chaos, she received a message from Lt.-Col. Yonatan Tzur, the commander of the Nahal Brigade's patrol battalion, who was later tragically killed in an encounter with terrorists. He reported an infiltration near Sufa and Nirim, saying, "There are several terrorists there... They're heavily armed!"

For nearly four hours, terrorists attempted to outflank Ben-Yehuda and her team, engaging them in firefights. More vans arrived, but the Caracal Battalion commander effectively thwarted them. Additional Light Anti-Armor Weapon (LAW) missiles were launched, further eliminating terrorists: Some were killed, and others retreated. Despite wounds to some of her soldiers, they persevered.

Israel-UN spat intensifies after Secretary General says Hamas attacks 'did not happen in a vacuum'

A furious diplomatic spat between Israel and the United Nations has broken out, with Israeli officials calling for the resignation of Secretary General Antonio Guterres after he said Hamas' October 7 attacks on the country "did not happen in a vacuum."

At a Security Council meeting, Guterres called for a humanitarian ceasefire on Tuesday amid the deepening crisis in Gaza, and told the Security Council that "clear violations of international humanitarian law" are being witnessed.

He called Hamas' October 7 murder and kidnap rampage "appalling," and said "nothing can justify the deliberate killing, injuring and kidnapping of civilians, or the launching of rockets against civilian targets."

"It is important to also recognize the attacks by Hamas did not happen in a vacuum," Guterres said. "The Palestinian people have been subjected to 56 years of suffocating occupation. They have seen their land steadily devoured by settlements and plagued by violence; their economy stifled; their people displaced and their homes demolished."

"But the grievances of the Palestinian people cannot justify the appalling attacks by Hamas. And those appalling attacks cannot justify the collective punishment of the Palestinian people. Excellencies, even war has rules," he added.

Pakistan test-fires Ababeel nuclear missile

Pakistan has test-fired an Ababeel missile capable of carrying multiple warheads that can attack different targets.

Pakistan last tested the multiple independently targetable reentry vehicles-capable weapon on Jan. 24, 2017.

The military's media branch, Inter Services Public Relations Pakistan, stated Wednesday's test was meant to revalidate "various design, technical parameters, and performance evaluation of different sub-systems" and was "aimed at strengthening deterrence and enhancing strategic stability in the region."

Pakistan says failure to implement two-state solution 'core issue' behind Palestine conflict

Pakistan's foreign office on Thursday called for an immediate cease-fire and an end to the siege of Gaza by Israel, saying the "core issue" behind the conflict was the failure to implement the two-state solution.

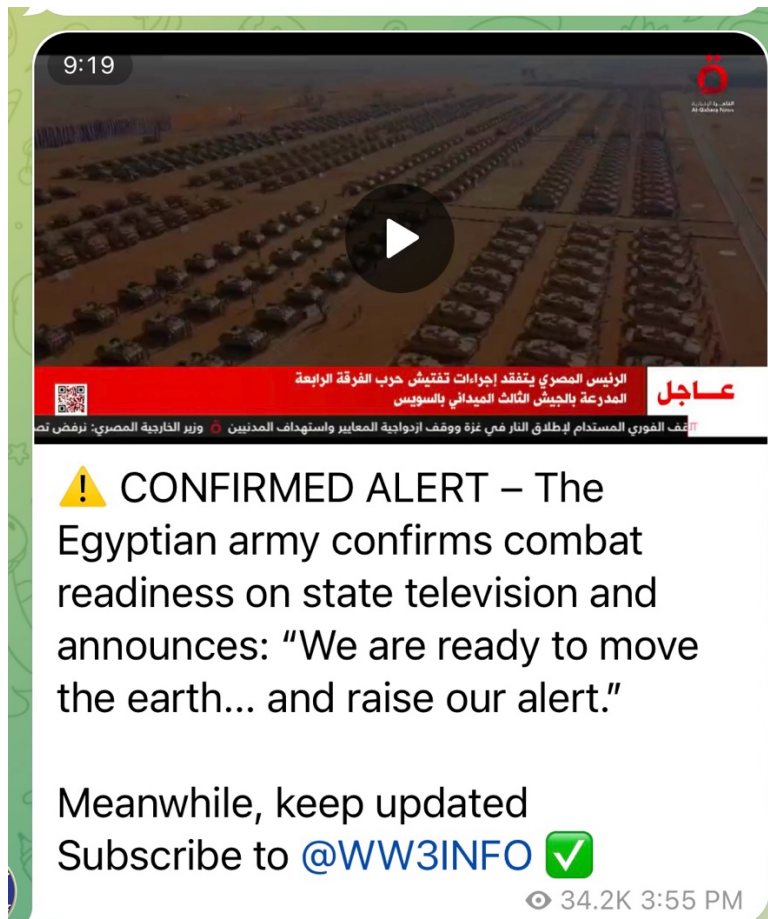

Pakistan does not recognize the state of Israel and supports an independent Palestinian state based on “internationally agreed parameters” and the pre-1967 borders with Al-Quds Al-Sharif as its capital.

“Pakistan remains deeply concerned about the situation of our Palestinian brothers and sisters in Gaza,” the foreign office said, condemning Israeli aggression and blockade, particularly Tuesday’s attack on a Gaza hospital in which some 500 people were killed.

“Israel’s actions violate international humanitarian and human rights law. Deliberate attack against civilian targets constitute war crimes and crimes against humanity,” the foreign office added.

Libya's parliament calls for halting oil exports to supporters of Israel amid Gaza conflict
East Libya-based assembly calls on ambassadors of countries supporting Israeli attacks in Gaza to leave Libya immediately

Libya's parliament on Wednesday called for halting oil exports to backers of Israel amid relentless airstrikes on the Gaza Strip.

"We demand the government halt oil and gas exports to countries supporting Israel in case the Israeli massacres are not stopped," parliamentary spokesman Abdullah Belihag said in a statement.

The East Libya-based assembly also called on ambassadors of countries supporting Israel's "crimes" in Gaza to leave Libya immediately.

"The assembly strongly condemns the support provided by the US, UK, France, and Italy for Israeli crimes in Gaza," the statement said.

It termed the Gaza conflict as a "genocide led by the US and the West against disarmed people under blockade."

Israel has launched a relentless bombardment campaign on the Gaza Strip following a cross-border attack by Hamas into Israeli territory on Oct. 7.

Nearly 8,000 people have been killed in the conflict, including at least 6,546 Palestinians and 1,400 Israelis.

Gaza's 2.3 million people have been running out of food, water, medicines and fuel, and aid convoys allowed into Gaza have carried only a fraction of what is needed.
