Epstein Files—Biggest Scandal Ever?

DOJ's Epstein files reveal shocking connections between Epstein & the world's most powerful Insiders. Not only was he a child sex trafficker and rapist, he was a fixer & adviser to the Deep State.

It may be one of the biggest scandals in human history—and there is much more to come.

The Department of Justice's massive release of over three million files on child sex trafficker and Deep State fixer Jeffrey Epstein reveals jaw-dropping connections between Epstein and the globalist Trilateral Commission, the Rothschild banking dynasty, the Council on Foreign Relations, Bill Gates, the origins of cryptocurrency, and more.

Not only did Epstein traffic underage children, but he also served as a consultant, adviser, and friend to some of the most powerful organizations, politicians, and banks in the world. The proof is all in the emails, as we discuss in this special episode of Behind The Deep State.

In fact, the emails strongly suggest that many so-called “debunked conspiracy theories” such as Pizzagate are not theories at all, but facts. This release provides the greatest single opportunity to hold criminals in the Deep State accountable. But the DOJ and Congress must act.

Deep State Fixer: Epstein's Ties to Rothschilds and Trilateral Commission Exposed

By Andrew Muller

New files from the Department of Justice's behemoth disclosure of the Jeffrey Epstein files reveal ties between Epstein and the Insiders — a small elite in politics, academia, and business who operate in a conspiracy to usher in a global government. Most significantly, Epstein worked with the Trilateral Commission and the Rothschild banking dynasty.

The revelations add depth to the profile of Epstein, whom many considered to be a depraved blackmail operator, but not a power player in the inner workings of the Insider Deep State.

But new files show that Epstein was not only a depraved trafficker but hyper involved in the Insider apparatus at the highest levels of power.

In a newly released two-hour sit-down interview with Epstein conducted by Steve Bannon in 2019, Epstein lauds the Trilateral Commission and its founder, bragging about his membership and the utility it serves.

He [David Rockefeller] thought there was a world that existed that would be a combination of both politics and business and leadership.... He formed something called the Trilateral Commission.... David said, "In most countries, the politicians get elected for four years, or eight years ... and they are not there anymore. The most important people to have stability and consistency would be businessmen. So, he formed this Trilateral Commission.... So, he said to me, "Would you like to be on The Trilateral Commission?" I was 30 years old — 32 years old. I said, "Great!"

Davos

In a conversation with World Economic Forum (WEF) CEO and President Borge Brende, Epstein wrote in 2018 that "[D]avos can really replace the UN. Cyber, crypto . Genetics... intl [sic] coordination. Like my stint at the trilateral. [I]ssues now need to deal with the distributed trust and internet fallout."

Epstein was not just rubbing shoulders with the Insiders. He was advising them.

The Rothschild Connection

“[A]s you probably know I represent the Rothschilds,” Epstein wrote to Palantir founder Peter Theil in a 2016 email, further illustrating his entrenchment with the Insiders.

Hundreds of documents show that Epstein was not just a representative for the Rothschild family business, he was a trusted friend and ally.

The files confirm that Jeffrey Epstein was far more than a playboy blackmailer. He did traffic underage children; he lured politicians, businessmen, and academics to his island to commit debauchery; he did possess leverage on elites. But he was also at the heart of the Insider’s operation in a big way, serving as an advisor, confidant, networker, and consultant for outfits that exist to destroy Americanism and usher in a global gulag.

While the new batch of documents shed light on the real Jeffrey Epstein, undoubtedly there are even more emails, videos, photographs, and files yet to be seen by the public eye that would illuminate the understanding of citizens to nature of the Insiders.

Americans must demand full transparency to see the full, unredacted files, and law enforcement must conduct interviews with suspects and associates of Epstein to get answers. Unless criminals are brought to full account for their crimes, disclosure will be nothing but a formality, and the conspiracy will continue to inch forward, never fearing a just punishment.

“Bondi Defends Epstein Files Release in Combative Hearing
Attorney general spars with critics as she shields Trump during tense appearance
before House committee”

“Attorney General Pam Bondi defended the Justice Department’s release of files from the Jeffrey Epstein investigation during a fiery congressional hearing in which she traded barbs with Democrats, praised President Trump and declined to apologize directly to a group of the convicted sex offender’s victims seated behind her.”

““Will you turn to them now and apologize for what the Department of Justice has put them through?” Jayapal asked, touching off the first of several shouting matches.

“I am not going to get in the gutter for this woman,” Bondi replied.
Though Bondi didn’t turn around, she said in her opening remarks that she was sorry for what victims had endured “as a result of that monster.””

Prince William, Kate ‘deeply concerned’ by latest Epstein revelations: spokesman

Britain’s Prince William and his wife Catherine have been “deeply concerned” by the latest revelations linking William’s uncle Andrew Mountbatten-Windsor to late US sex offender Jeffrey Epstein, Kensington Palace said Monday.

“I can confirm that the Prince and Princess of Wales have been deeply concerned by the continued revelations,” the palace said in a statement.

The statement — first public comments from the heir to the throne and his wife on the scandal since the latest release of Epstein files more than a week ago — added that “their thoughts remain focused on the victims” of Epstein, who died in prison awaiting trial on sex trafficking charges in 2019.

Hermes chief says Jeffrey Epstein visited workshop with Woody Allen

Axel Dumas, chief executive of the French luxury house Hermes, acknowledged Thursday that he met Jeffrey Epstein in 2013 when the convicted sex offender invited himself to a workshop visit with actor Woody Allen and other guests.

“I had one single contact with Jeffrey Epstein, it was in March 2013,” Dumas said as the company presented its full-year financial results.

“He was not on the guest list and joined a group of guests invited by Woody Allen and his wife, without prior warning,” he said.

A photo in the mass of Epstein investigation files released by the US Justice Department shows the three men at an Hermes workshop outside Paris.

“Someone took the opportunity to take an impromptu picture, which he evidently kept precious,” Dumas said. “And indeed, he had a bad reputation.”

“Afterwards, he tried to meet with me three times, which I always declined,” he added.

TRUMP told [REDACTED] that he was around EPSTEIN once when teenagers were present and TRUMP "got the hell out of there". TRUMP was one of the very first people to call when people found out that they were investigating EPSTEIN.

No one could explain how EPSTEIN made his money. They knew he worked for BEAR STEARNS. [REDACTED] was told that EPSTEIN was kind of a technical guy that would make it happen but you didn't want to know how.

None of the victims that PBPD spoke with said they had sexual contact with men other than EPSTEIN while in EPSTEIN's orbit. [REDACTED] had one time went out screaming.

PRINCE ANDREW was a fixture in Palm Beach and he had no protection while there.

[REDACTED] has done interviews in the past with [REDACTED] People/victims thought that PBPD was paid off by EPSTEIN which was why [REDACTED] went and did these interviews. He felt he needed to defend PBPD.

An interior designer told the PBPD that rooms in the Virgin Islands had been decorated for teenage girls. [REDACTED] contacted the Virgin Island Police Department, but they were not helpful.

In the end when EPSTEIN had turned himself in to plea to the misdemeanor, [REDACTED] was not notified and found out from the newspaper.

Jesse Van Rootselaar, 18, ID'd as transgender ex-student behind Tumbler Ridge mass shooting

The deranged high school dropout who murdered his mother and stepbrother before killing six people at a British Columbia school has been identified as 18-year-old transgender ex-student Jesse Van Rootselaar.

The horrifying attack, one of the deadliest shootings in Canada's history, began Tuesday at a residence in the sleepy rural community of Tumbler Ridge, in the western province, and concluded at Tumbler Ridge Secondary School, a small academy serving grades 7-12 with a student body of around 160.

Authorities say Van Rootselaar shot himself dead at the school.

Asked by a reporter whether he believes there was any correlation between Van Rootselaar identifying as transgender and the shooting, McDonald said it's "too early to say."

The police superintendent later described the shooter as a "gunperson" in a press briefing.

Six people were found dead inside the school, and the bodies of his mother, 39, and stepbrother, 11, were discovered in a local residence, cops said.

CTV News identified Van Rootselaar's mother as Jennifer Strang, and initially reported the shooter as having the same last name.

In an Instagram from July 2024, Strang posted a picture of a trans-inclusive Pride flag emblazoned with the message "Good people don't spend their time harassing marginalized communities."

Iranians mark 47th Islamic revolution anniversary with nationwide rallies
Tehran rallies feature imagery of Iranian missiles and drones from last year's conflict with Israel.

Iranians have commemorated the 47th anniversary of the Islamic revolution with mass rallies nationwide.

Crowds flooded Tehran and other cities on Wednesday to celebrate the Islamic Republic's establishment and show solidarity with the government during one of the most tumultuous periods in Iran's recent history.

Demonstrators packed the streets carrying portraits of Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei and Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, the Islamic Republic's founder, along with Iranian and Palestinian flags. Many in attendance chanted, "Death to America!" and "Death to Israel!"

Donald J. Trump

I have just finished meeting with Prime Minister Netanyahu, of Israel, and various of his Representatives. It was a very good meeting, the tremendous relationship between our two Countries continues. There was nothing definitive reached other than I insisted that negotiations with Iran continue to see whether or not a Deal can be consummated. If it can, I let the Prime Minister know that will be a preference. If it cannot, we will just have to see what the outcome will be. Last time Iran decided that they were better off not making a Deal, and they were hit with Midnight Hammer — That did not work well for them. Hopefully this time they will be more reasonable and responsible. Additionally, we discussed the tremendous progress being made in Gaza, and the Region in general. There is truly PEACE in the Middle East. Thank you for your attention to this matter!

Iran celebrated the 47th anniversary of the Islamic Revolution and the overthrow of the US-backed monarchy of 1979 by setting fire to a statue depicting the demon god “Baal” with the star of David carved onto it. The effigy also adorned an image of US President Donald Trump and the number “666”. The demonstration was organised under the banner of “22 Bahman” in central squares in Tehran and other major cities. Demonstrator chanted ‘death to Israel’ as they set fire to the demon god “Baal”.

Israeli media i24 reported the demonstration as state-organised and termed the symbolism as "overtly confrontational". According i24 report demonstrator burned Israeli and American flags, while mock coffins draped in U.S. flags and bearing images of senior American military figures, including U.S. Army Chief of Staff Gen. Randy George and CENTCOM Commander Gen. Brad Cooper.

Iranian media PressTV called the demonstration a response to the “foreign conspiracies” and “hybrid, cognitive, and media warfare” of the bitter "American-Zionist" collusion. The demonstrators held up the Islamic religious doctrine, “Quran”, as a protest against its burning during the January riots. “No true Iranian takes up arms against another Iranian or invites an enemy to intervene,” said Iranian President Massoud Pezeshkian.

Baal is a Canaanite deity and was prayed to by the Levants during the late Bronze Age in West Asia. Most of the modern-day Jews can trace their heritage to the Canaanites. The deity Baal turned into a false god with the widespread adoption of monotheism and literary mockery of Baal-Zebub/Beelzebub. Christian literary writings, such as John Milton's Paradise Lost, solidified Baal as Satanic. Some scholars argue that there was archaeological evidence of child sacrifices to Baal during the late Bronze Age. So the burning of the Baal statue was used as a symbolic reference to Jeffrey Epstein and the US and Zionist elite, who have been accused of child abuse in the recently released Epstein files by the DOJ.

American citizens — and only American citizens — should decide American elections. The Save America Act is a common sense, bipartisan bill that would simply require —

A Valid ID Before Registering to Vote in a Federal Election

Proof of Citizenship

No Mail-in Ballots (Except for Illness, Disability, Military or Travel)

The President is calling on Republicans and Democrats to pass the SAVE America Act. Requirement for Voter I.D. to vote should be something that NO American should oppose. If you want to register to vote in the United States, you have to be a citizen in the United States.

The SAVE America ACT will direct states to remove non-citizens from the voter rolls. AMERICA lags behind other nations in enforcing basic and necessary election protections —

India and Brazil tie voter I.D. to a biometric database, while the United States largely relies on self-attestation for citizenship.

Germany and Canada require paper ballots when tabulating votes, while the U.S. lacks basic chain-of-custody protections.

Denmark and Sweden sensibly limit mail-in voting to those unable to vote in person.

Late arrivals do not count—while American elections now feature mass voting by mail, even after Election Day.

Discord will require a face scan or ID for full access next month

Discord is implementing global age verification starting next month. All accounts will default to a "teen-appropriate experience" unless users verify their age through a bio-metric face scan or submitting their official government ID.

Unverified users can't access age-restricted servers, speak in stage channels, or bypass content moderation filters. To verify, users can choose between facial age estimation or submitting identification. Discord claims that no personal data is retained after verification.

Changes aim to enhance child safety and comply with legal requirements. However, there are concerns, especially following a data breach involving age verification information allegedly "not stored" and "immediately deleted."

Milano Cortina Olympic Games Open With Dual Flames, Italian Pageantry

The official start of the 2026 Winter Olympics blends operatic grandeur and pop spectacle.

Two Olympic flames rose into the night sky Friday, one beneath Milan's Arco della Pace and the other in Cortina d'Ampezzo, marking the official start of the 2026 Winter Games in a ceremony that unfolded across northern Italy.

Italian culture anchored much of the evening's pageantry. Dancers from the Teatro alla Scala academy opened the show with choreography inspired by winter sport, while large figures representing composers Giuseppe Verdi, Giacomo Puccini, and Gioachino Rossini appeared in tribute to the country's musical legacy.
