Former President Donald Trump came out swinging against a CNN moderator on Wednesday as she interrupted him and tried to school him on the facts of the 2020 election, the subsequent U.S. Capitol protest on Jan. 6, 2021, and other topics.

Was he right? Is it true? If it is then we have plain evidence that other side is lying. No matter what you think of him we need to side with the truth and not the lie.

'Trans kids' prescribed MORE anti-psychotic meds after beginning gender transition than before: study

A 2021 study of military youth has revealed that not only were minors with severe mental illness allowed to embark upon experimental medical sex changes, but also that prescriptions for anti-psychotic drugs actually increased after hormonal interventions were initiated, reports Fox News.

The study, published in the Journal of Sexual Medicine, examined the Department of Defense (DoD) medical records of 3,754 trans-identified adolescents and 6,603 siblings who did not identify as transgender. The findings reveal no improvement in mental health after commencing hormone interventions and an increase in prescriptions for psychotropic medication.

See the lie they are pushing on us?

Conclusions The bivalent COVID-19 vaccine given to working-aged adults afforded modest protection overall against COVID-19 while the BA.4/5 lineages were the dominant circulating strains, afforded less protection when the BQ lineages were dominant, and effectiveness was not demonstrated when the XBB lineages were dominant.

Summary Among 51017 working-aged Cleveland Clinic employees, the bivalent COVID-19 vaccine was 29% effective in preventing infection while the BA.4/5 lineages were dominant, and 20% effective while the BQ lineages were. Effectiveness was not demonstrated when the XBB lineages were dominant.

MedRxiv published a Cleveland Clinic study pre-print titled “Effectiveness of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) Bivalent Vaccine.”

It should have been titled, the “NON-Effectiveness of the Covid Vaccine,” or “Risks of the Covid Vaccine.”

The short version is the prestigious researchers found that the more jobs a person took, the more likely it was they’d catch symptomatic covid.

The researchers reviewed over 50,000 Cleveland Clinic employees. They found extremely low efficacy at stopping symptomatic infection — 29%, 4%, and 0%, depending on the variant — but their final conclusion really put the stuffing in the punchline:

The researchers found very little difference between the bivalent vaccines and the original ones, and also found that the lowest efficacy, near zero (“A protective effect could not be demonstrated”), occurred after the XBB variants appeared, which itself came right after the rollout of the brand-new “bivalent” vaccines themselves, which were supposed to be pharmaceutical Swiss Army knives providing broader protection than the useless original mRNA formulation.

Put differently, as so many predicted, the virus promptly evolved right around the new bivalent vaccine.

So we see more lies that are being told to us.

Jordan, Egypt pan Israeli strikes in Gaza; UN envoy: Civilian deaths 'unacceptable'

Jordan and Egypt issued stark condemnations of Israel's deadly strikes in Gaza Tuesday, hours after the IDF launched Operation Shield and Arrow.

As of early afternoon on Tuesday, Israel's other Arab allies had yet to comment on the operation, which launched in the early hours of the morning with the targeted assassination of three senior Islamic Jihad officials. In total, 13 people were killed in the strikes, including several women and children.

1 killed, 5 hurt as rocket hits residential building in Rehovot

Nearly 600 rockets have been fired at Israel so far this week as Israel suffers its first casualty of the conflict.

A rocket fired by terrorists from the Gaza Strip struck a residential building in Rehovot this evening (Thursday).

A 70-year-old man was killed in the rocket strike, and five people were injured. This is the first fatality on the Israeli side since Operation Shield and Arrow began Monday night.

More lies about the true nature of the conflict.

So, when they say...

'WHO Has No Authority to Dictate U.S. Health Policy'

The World Health Organization can make recommendations after the declaration of a global emergency, but it has no control over any nation's decisions. Yet conservatives in the U.S. falsely claim that amendments proposed by the Biden administration to existing global health regulations, and a new WHO pandemic treaty, will threaten U.S. sovereignty.

Can you believe them?

AI pioneer quits Google to warn about the technology's 'dangers'

Geoffrey Hinton, who has been called the 'Godfather of AI,' confirmed Monday that he left his role at Google last week to speak out about the "dangers" of the technology he helped to develop.

"I left so that I could talk about the dangers of AI without considering how this impacts Google," Hinton said in a tweet. "Google has acted very responsibly."

In the interview with the Times, Hinton echoed concerns about AI's potential to eliminate jobs and create a world where many will "not be able to know what is true anymore." He also pointed to the stunning pace of advancement, far beyond what he and others had anticipated.

You see it's a spiritual battle between right and wrong, true and false, Satan's kingdom and God's Church.

Nationwide Campaign To Deplatform And Harass Christians From Public

Christianity is rapidly becoming synonymous with "hate", and that puts us in very dangerous territory. Because once a certain class of people becomes classified as a "hate group", they become targets.

Unfortunately, Christians are already being systematically targeted right now. Matt Taibbi and his colleagues just put out an excellent article about the "Censorship-Industrial Complex" that is rapidly evolving all around us.

Dozens of major organizations are working together to suppress speech that they do not like. Once an individual or a group has been identified as being problematic, they can suddenly be hit from multiple directions all at once.

That can often mean having their social media accounts "deplatformed", but it can also mean being "de-banked" by financial institutions. In fact, JPMorgan Chase is being accused of "de-banking" quite a few Christian organizations simply because of what they believe...

Nineteen Republican state attorneys general asserted on Tuesday that JPMorgan Chase "de-banked" organizations for their conservative and religious tendencies, calling on the nation's largest financial institution to respect the viewpoints of their customers.

The officials stated in a letter to the firm provided to The Daily Wire that the National Committee for Religious Freedom, a "nonpartisan, faith-based nonprofit organization dedicated to defending the right of everyone in America to live one's faith freely," had its Chase account nixed three weeks into starting a relationship with the company and was asked to provide a list of their donors to the firm.

A credit card processor owned by Chase likewise terminated the account for Family Council, a conservative organization working to strengthen traditional family values, while a firm called WePay, which is also owned by Chase, refused to serve Defense of Liberty, a Missouri-based political action committee.

If you love liberty, reading that should sicken you, because what they are doing is fundamentally un-American.

Yes, and also on purpose. We become the lie and they become the truth. That is why they are not letting up...

LGBTQ Infant: Target Releases LGBTQ+ Clothes for Babies, Kids

Talk about being way off target. Retail giant Target has a new line of pro-LGBTQ clothing for children—even for infants. In case, you know, your six-month-old makes the mature decision to become transgender.

Woke Alerts from Consumers' Research, which notifies users about corporate wokeness, warned about a new LGBTQ "pride" clothing collection from Target. "This follows longstanding efforts by Target to indoctrinate kids via books titled 'Are You a Boy or Are You a Girl?,' 'The Hips on the Drag Queen Go Swish, Swish, Swish,' 'I'm Not a Girl,' and more," the Woke Alert noted. Now, Target is expanding its LGBTQ propaganda products to indoctrinate children even while they're still babies.

Under its "take pride" section, Target gibbers, "Being true to yourself and your community is something to celebrate, all year long." Unless your community is Christian or conservative, one presumes.

But it gets worse, of course. Go to "Pride Kids' & Baby Clothing." These include "Pride Baby Bien Proud Bodysuit – Light Mint Green," or the same pattern for older kids, "Pride Baby 'Be Kind' Jumper Romper – Black," "Pride Baby 'Always Proud' Bibs," and "Pride Baby 'It Takes All Kinds' Bodysuit – Blue." Or, alternatively, perhaps, Target could have a bodysuit for babies saying, "My parents are woke idiots."

It's never too early to start grooming your kids to think their bodies are defective and to confuse them about their "gender" and sexuality, according to Target!

If you speak out, you will be the enemy. You will be the one that is in the way. You are the one that is restraining their world from becoming the norm. Where have we heard that before?
