

#Resist - 1 Peter 5:8-11

Stand Read Pray.

We are in the middle of Jesus' Olivet Discourse and found a perfect time to take break and talk about where we are headed and how we were equipped a couple of weeks ago. There are a lot of questions, and the bible gives us our answer. Let's remember that Jesus said...

Matthew 24:4

"Take heed that no one deceives you."

And in...

Matthew 24:9-10

"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake. And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another."

If we are to take these scriptures to heart it will help us to understand some of the other scriptures that some will use to try to say * resisting our evil tyrannical government is wrong and that we just need to shut up and obey. Is this true? The first one they always rely upon is Romans 13. Let's look at in its context...

Can we #Resist?

Romans 12:21-13:7

While you are turning there, let's look at a couple of scriptures to build the context. Paul is writing to the Romans about applying the Christian life into action. It starts with...

Romans 12:1-2

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

What's that look like practically...

Romans 12:9

Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good...

Romans 12:17

Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the sight of all men.

What is good is doing what is right and lines up with God's word. This would include being Pro-Life and Traditional Marriage and Gender. The Bible speaks in contrasts that leave no room for a gray area. There is Good and Evil and Right and Wrong, and we are supposed to be on God's side.

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. 2 Therefore whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves. 3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same. 4 For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil. 5 Therefore you must be subject, not only because of wrath but also for conscience' sake. 6 For because of this you also pay taxes, for they are God's ministers attending continually to this very thing. 7 Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

So, * what happens when your government tells you to kill your baby? Do you Obey?

What * will you do when they tell you your boy is a girl?

We * have a biblical mandate to abhor what is evil and to cling to what is good and that would mean to disobey the Government.

We have biblical examples!

Exodus 2:8-22

Acts 4:13-31

People will say that the only reason to disobey the law is if it stops you from preaching the gospel. I love it when people give me that argument because I ask them how often do they preach the gospel? Or do they know the gospel that says Jesus died for our sins? If that is true then we have to define sin, correct?

The early church suffered greatly under the brutal hand of the Roman Empire. That is the context of Peter's first letter that we read together. They were not just suffering for preaching the gospel but for living it in the public square...

What happens when we #Resist?

1 Peter 3:13-17 & 4:12-19

So, * it is our duty to do what is good and right even when it is outlawed by our government.

So, what did we learn at TP USA Faith's Pastors Summit?

Join the White Rose Resistance!

Led by Hans Scholl and his sister Sophie, the White Rose Resistance was a small collective of Christian students who secretly wrote and distributed leaflets all around Germany, criticizing the Nazis and inspiring others to resist them.

On February 18th, 1943, Hans and Sophie walked the halls at the University of Munich, placing hundreds of their leaflets in the open. The janitor caught them in the act and Sophie and her brother were sentenced to death by guillotine.

On the eve of her beheading, Sophie spoke some of her final words: "Such a fine, sunny day and I have to go. But what does my death matter, if through us, thousands of people are awakened and stirred to action?" As the blade prepared to fall, Sophie said, "The sun still shines!"

"We Are Christian And We Are German. Therefore, We Are Responsible For Germany."

What can we do?

David Barton reminded us of the overturning of the Lemon Law

Five days after the overturning of Roe, the Coach Kennedy case was decided. (Football coach who was fired for praying on the field)

Respect for religious expressions is indispensable to life in a free and diverse Republic. Here, a government entity sought to punish an individual for engaging in a personal religious observance, based on a mistaken view that it has a duty to suppress religious observances even as it allows comparable secular speech. The Constitution neither mandates nor tolerates that kind of discrimination. Mr. Kennedy is entitled to summary judgment on his religious exercise and free speech claims.

We can pray in public!

We can live our faith in public!

And the government cannot do anything about it!
