

St. Paul's

LUTHERAN CHURCH

April 26, 2026 | The Fourth Sunday of the Easter Season

Welcome to honored guests and St. Paul's family alike!

In our service we gather before our almighty God to offer him our worship and praise. We also gather to be strengthened through the study of God's holy and powerful Word, and through the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Restrooms and a drinking fountain are located on the right in the hallway outside the sanctuary.

We have personal hearing devices. If you need one, please let an usher know before the service.

Our worship is designed for your whole family. Find children's busy bags, a book that teaches young children about worship, children's bulletins, and children's worship note sheets on the cart near the central sanctuary doors.

God loves the sound of children in worship, and so do we! If you need to step out of worship for a moment, we have a family room located through the door in the back of the fellowship hall. The facility includes a TV, a window, and speakers so that you can still follow along with the worship service.

If you do not have a church home, we would love to talk with you about how we can serve you with the Gospel and make here your home!

Our Easter worship series | What difference does it make?

Life is full of either/or moments. Some of them are of little long-term consequence. I will have either the chicken or the fish. Some of them matter more. I will accept the new job offer or keep my current job. One either/or moment is life-changing for every human being. Either Jesus is still dead, or Jesus rose from the dead. If Christ has not been raised, we are still in our sin.

But Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! It makes all the difference! He lives! The season of Easter is a 50-day celebration of that fact.

Today's worship theme | He lives to be my Good Shepherd

Without the resurrection of Jesus, I would choose my own direction in life. I would be terrible at it, because, like a sheep, I can generally see only what's in front of me at the moment, and I get myself into trouble. It is especially difficult for me to look far into my future as planned by Jesus. If he had not risen from the dead, I would be on my own.

But he lives, and it makes a difference. I have the reliable direction of the Good Shepherd. He feeds us with his Word. He protects us from the roaring lion, Satan. He is leading us into the green pastures of eternal life. For centuries, the Church has observed this Fourth Sunday of Easter to celebrate that Jesus lives to be our Good Shepherd.

Our prayer before worship | for following the Good Shepherd

Risen and living Lord, accept our alleluias and increase our joy in knowing that you have risen from the grave! Comfort us with the assurance that our sins are forgiven and eternal life is sure. May the message of Easter lead us to tell the true good news of this season. Make our faith burn brightly as we face each day in the light of your glorious resurrection. Amen.

Confession

154

P(astor) | In the name of the Father, and of the Son (+), and of the Holy Spirit.

C(ongregation) | Amen.

P | Dear Friends in Christ, the Bible says, “If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:8-9). Therefore, as we gather together for worship in the presence of God, together we pray, humbly confessing our sins and asking for his forgiveness.

C | O Lord, hear my prayer, listen to my cry for mercy, and in your faithfulness, come to my relief. Do not bring your servant into judgment, for no one living is righteous before you. Answer me quickly, O Lord; my spirit fails. Do not hide your face from me, for I have put my trust in you. Show me the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul. Teach me to do your will, for you are my God.

(Taken from various Psalms)

Brief silence for meditation

P | We confess:

C | Almighty God, merciful Father, I, a troubled and repentant sinner, confess that I have sinned against you in my thoughts, my words, and my actions. I have not loved you with my whole heart; I have not loved others as I should. I am distressed by the sins that trouble me and am deeply sorry for them. I humbly ask for your forgiveness.

P | Jesus says to his people, “If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven.” His death paid for the guilt of your sins and the sins of the whole world. Do you believe this?

The musical score is written on four staves in a single system. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is in the soprano voice. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

P | Because of the promise of our Savior, Jesus, I forgive all your sins. Be assured that you are a redeemed child of God, bought with the blood of Jesus Christ. “The blood of Jesus purifies us from all our sins” (1 John 1:7). With your sins forgiven, know that you are an heir of eternal life. We pray together:

C | O Lord, my God, I called to you for help, and you answered me. I thank you for the love you have shown me in Jesus Christ, my Savior. Through him you have rescued me from the guilt of my sin and given me the peace of forgiveness. Help me fight against temptation, correct whatever wrongs I can, and serve you and those around me with love and good works. In Jesus’ name, I pray. Amen.

Prayer of the Day

P | The Lord be with you.

C | And also with you.

P | Let us pray: O Lord Jesus Christ, you are the Good Shepherd who laid down your life for the sheep. Lead us now to the still waters of your life-giving Word that we may abide in your Father's house forevermore; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C | Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2:42–47

The Good Shepherd's flock grew as people devoted themselves to the apostolic teaching.

The Christians Lived in Unity

⁴²They continued to hold firmly to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of the bread, and to the prayers. ⁴³Awe came over every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. ⁴⁴All the believers were together and had everything in common. ⁴⁵They were selling their possessions and property and were distributing the proceeds according to what anyone needed.

⁴⁶Day after day, with one mind, they were devoted to meeting in the temple area, as they continued to break bread in their homes. They shared their food with glad and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷as they continued praising God and being viewed favorably by all the people. Day after day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Psalm 23: A Psalm of Hope

Adult Choir

The Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want for more. How could I ask for more?
He leads me by still water, and I shall not want for more. How could I ask for more?

He is enough for ev'ry need. He is enough for ev'ry broken dream.

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.

I'm satisfied with what he gives. He will provide and faithfully supply.

The Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want.

He leads through the valley, and I shall not want.

He is enough for ev'ry need. He is enough for ev'ry broken dream.

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.

I'm satisfied with what he gives. He will provide and faithfully supply.

The Lord is my Shepherd, and I shall not want.

He is the night. He is the day. He is the sun, he is the shade.

He is the ocean. He is the stream. In ev'ry song, he is my theme.

And if we wander off alone, his mercy calls us back to home.

I feast at his table, and I shall not want for more.

He is the strength to conquer sin. I shall not want.

He's faithful when my trust is thin. I shall not want.

Second Reading

1 Peter 2:19–25

St. Peter calls us to follow our Shepherd and Overseer, even if it means we will suffer for doing good.

¹⁹For this is favorable: if a person endures sorrows while suffering unjustly because he is conscious of God. ²⁰For what credit is it to you if you receive a beating for sinning and patiently endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and endure it, this is favorable with God.

²¹Indeed, you were called to do this, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example so that you would follow in his steps. ²²He did not commit a sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth. ²³When he was insulted, he did not insult in return. When he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. ²⁴He himself carried our sins in his body on the tree so that we would be dead to sins and alive to righteousness. By his wounds you were healed. ²⁵For you were like sheep going astray, but you are now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation

John 10:14

P | Alleluia! I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 10:1–10

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, is the gate through which we enter the green pastures of salvation.

The Good Shepherd

¹“Amen, Amen, I tell you: Anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the door, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. ²The one who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The doorkeeper opens the door for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own sheep, he walks ahead of them. The sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.” ⁶Jesus used this illustration in speaking to the people, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

⁷So Jesus said again, “Amen, Amen, I tell you: I am the door for the sheep. ⁸All who came before me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the door. Whoever enters through me will be saved. He will come in and go out, and find pasture.

¹⁰“A thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

Sermon

The good life sounds like this. | John 10:1-10

Points to ponder following the sermon:

- 1) What can I do to help filter out the noise pollution in my life?
- 2) Every day this week, I will take time to remember what the good life truly is.
- 3) Someone says, “I don’t know if I’m listening to the right voice.” How can you help them know?

Prayer of the Church

Good Shepherd

P | Lord Jesus, Good Shepherd, we have heard the sweet sound of your familiar and loving voice in the gospel and have feasted in the green pastures of your Holy Word. Use its message to nourish and sustain us as we journey through this life to the next. What joy it is to know that you laid down your life for the sheep—even sheep like us.

C | Bless your Word in our lives.

P | Gracious Shepherd, we are truly confused and foolish without you. Forgive us for the times we wander from you and stray from the call of your voice. When Satan comes in the sheep's clothing of false teaching, expose his lies and guide us in your truth. When temporary pleasures beacon us to follow the wide road to hell, use your rod and staff to curb our sinful nature and lead us in the paths of righteousness.

C | Restore us to your fold, and protect us from the evil one.

P | Guiding Shepherd, bless your Church with faithful under-shepherds—pastors, teachers, and staff ministers, who proclaim your death and resurrection as they minister to the souls in their care.

C | Give all ministers of the gospel an unwavering devotion to your Word.

P | Tender Shepherd, look with special care on all who suffer from loneliness, disease, accident, or loss. Lift them into your comforting arms, and embrace them with the warmth of your love. Carry them on your shoulders through all life's troubling times.

C | Renew hope and joy in their lives and our own.

P | Loving Shepherd, we pray also for your other sheep, who are not yet gathered in your sheep pen. Prosper the work of our missionaries at home and abroad. Give us all the zeal and courage to share with our friends and neighbors the good news of sins forgiven. Use our witness to gather the elect into one fold under your care.

C | Let your voice be heard in all the world.

Hear us, Lord, as we pray in silence.

Silent prayer

P | Eternal Shepherd, when our days on earth come to an end and we walk through the valley of the shadow of death, lead us safely to our eternal home.

C | There we will enjoy your goodness and mercy forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

C | Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Our good day in God's house continues after worship, too.

Our after-worship adult Bible Class time is a great time for good Christian encouragement as we grow in the Word together and take time to pray for one another. Today we will continue the Examples in Exodus study with Pastor Tim in the Fellowship Hall. Sunday School for the children will meet at the same time.

Thank you to the children from K-8 and the members of our adult choir for using your musical gifts in the service today!

Nice to Meet You!

Next Sunday, May 3 we will have our first Amnesia Sunday...what was that again? Oh, yeah, now I remember! We will all get to wear a nametag (which will be provided) and introduce ourselves to new friends and reintroduce ourselves to old friends. After worship, we will have a potluck meal as we get to know not only our newest family members but also all our family members!

MLC Day

Every year, friends of Martin Luther College come together to celebrate and support the Knights—the next generation of pastors, teachers, and staff ministers. On May 6, 2026 we have a synod-wide goal of raising $150,000 to provide matching funds for the Congregational Partner Grant Program. If you are not able to give financially, we ask members to pray and share (#MLCDAY2026) so that others can learn about this day.
