

RUTH WEEK 3

YOUR PEOPLE SHALL BE MY PEOPLE

Opening Prayer

Faithful God, thank You for welcoming us when we were outsiders. Teach us to live with loyalty, love, and hospitality. Amen.

Read the Text

Ruth 1:15–22

Feel free to take any notes below:

St. John's
CHURCH

RENEWAL
CHURCH

YOUR PEOPLE SHALL BE MY PEOPLE

- HEAD
1. What words stand out to you in Ruth's declaration to Naomi?
 2. Why is Ruth's commitment so radical in its cultural context?
 3. How does this passage highlight God's heart for the outsider?

- HEART
1. What fears might Ruth have faced in choosing Naomi's people and God?
 2. Where has God called you to follow Him at personal cost?
 3. How does Ruth's faith challenge your own trust in God?

- HANDS
1. How can you extend hospitality to someone seeking belonging?
 2. Whom might God be inviting you to walk alongside in faith this season?
 3. How can our group reflect God's welcoming love to those who might be outsiders?

- HUDDLE
- Break off into same-gender huddle groups and discuss:
1. What holds you back from fully surrendering your future to God?

RUTH WEEK 3

YOUR PEOPLE SHALL BE MY PEOPLE

MEMORY VERSE “Your people shall be my people, and your God my God.” -Ruth 1:16

SPIRITUALLY
VIBRANT HOME Invite someone into your home or life this week as an act of hospitality.

St. John's
CHURCH

RENEWAL
CHURCH