What exactly does it look like to practice Jesus' teaching?

- seeking reconciliation instead of nursing contempt;
- practicing sexual integrity and covenant faithfulness;
- telling the truth without manipulation;
- refusing retaliation and praying for an enemy;
- giving, praying, and serving without needing recognition;
- loosening our grip on money and possessions;
- entrusting our anxieties to our Father;
- examining ourselves before condemning someone else;
- treating others as we would want to be treated.

What will we now do with what we have heard?
