A DISCIPLE IS SOMEONE WHO:

surrenders to Jesus
obeys His commands
reflects His goodness and makes other disciples

A dirt road with visible tire tracks winds from the bottom center towards the horizon, flanked by lush green grass. In the distance, rolling hills and a few trees are visible under a soft, hazy sky. A semi-transparent white box is overlaid on the upper half of the image, containing text.

⁷ I once thought these things were valuable, but now I consider them worthless because of what Christ has done.

Philippians 3:7–9

⁸ Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ ⁹ and become one with him.

Philippians 3:7–9

⁹ ...I no longer count on my own righteousness through obeying the law; rather, I become righteous through faith in Christ. For God's way of making us right with himself depends on faith.

Philippians 3:9–11

¹⁰ I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead. I want to suffer with him, sharing in his death, ¹¹ so that one way or another I will experience the resurrection from the dead!

¹² I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me.
