My New Life

Jesus Is.

What is satisfying about the second half of this Colossian letter is that so complete a picture of practical Christianity is given in so short a space. Here is a well-balanced description of the normal Christian life.

-Dick Lucas

Jesus Is.

Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand.
² Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:1–4

³ For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ And when Christ, who is your life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:1–4

Colossians 3:1–2

² Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth. ³ For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:2–3

⁵ So put to death the sinful, earthly things lurking within you. Have nothing to do with sexual immorality, impurity, lust, and evil desires. Don't be greedy, for a greedy person is an idolater, worshiping the things of this world.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:5–11

⁶ Because of these sins, the anger of God is coming. ⁷ You used to do these things when your life was still part of this world. ⁸ But now is the time to get rid of anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:5–11

⁹ Don't lie to each other, for you have stripped off your old sinful nature and all its wicked deeds. ¹⁰ Put on your new nature, and be renewed as you learn to know your Creator and become like him.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:5–11

¹¹ In this new life, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbaric, uncivilized, slave, or free. Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

Jesus Is.

Jesus Is.

We must treat them (sin in our lives), like the outward circumstances of our lives, as difficult material with which in union with God we are called faithfully to deal. God judges us, and we must judge ourselves, by the way in which we do actually deal with them.

-Edward Arnold

⁹ ...for you have stripped off your old sinful nature and all its wicked deeds.

¹⁰ Put on your new nature, and be renewed as you learn to know your Creator and become like him.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:9–10

¹² Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:12–15

¹³ Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. ¹⁴ Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony.

Jesus Is.

NLT

Colossians 3:12–15

¹⁵ And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful.
