26 Let us not become boastful, challenging one another, envying one another.

Galatians 5:26–6:10

NASB95

Chapter 6 ¶ Brethren, even if anyone is caught in any trespass, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, so that you too will not be tempted. 2 Bear one another's burdens, and thereby fulfill the law of Christ.

Galatians 5:26–6:10

NASB95

3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But each one must examine his own work, and then he will have reason for boasting in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to another. 5 For each one will bear his own load.

Galatians 5:26–6:10

NASB95

6 The one who is taught the word is to share all good things with the one who teaches him. 7 Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap.

Galatians 5:26–6:10

NASB95

8 For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 Let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we do not grow weary.

Galatians 5:26–6:10

NASB95

10 So then, while we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, and especially to those who are of the household of the faith.

Dear brothers and sisters, if another believer is overcome by some sin, you who are godly should gently and humbly help that person back onto the right path. And be careful not to fall into the same temptation yourself.

Galatians 6:7–10

NASB95

Paul assumes that the Christian person is living within and regularly interacting with the rest of the community of faith.

Are you engaged with the community of faith? Are you in regular close contact with some of the other Christians in this room, or in Quincy?

Are you walking in the Spirit with those Christians? Are you helping gently restore people from their sin? Are you helping to bear someone's burden?

Are you sowing into the Spirit or your flesh?
