Who Do You Say That I am?

Who is the most influential person in your life? How do you reflect this? Does that person know they are the most influential? Why or why not?

What is the difference between respect and reverence? Who do you respect, but not revere? Who is someone you revere? How is that difference reflected in your relationship with that person? What is the risk of revering someone you don't know personally?

Read Matthew 16:14 and 16. What is different between these two responses? In Jewish culture, prophets were revered, while the Messiah was longed for. Why is Peter's response so significant? What would your response be?

Read Matthew 16:13-16. Often in life we go along with the status quo and stick with the crowd's answers. What is it about the disciples that allowed them to have a different answer? How have you made your response to Jesus your own? Is your relationship with God more like the crowd's or the disciples'?

If you believe Jesus is who He says He is, what does that change in your life? If you don't believe, what is holding you back?
