Day 21 - Dedicate This Year to God

“Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and he will establish your plans.”

Proverbs 16:3 NIV

Over the past 21 days, you have been aligning your heart with God's heart and allowing God to reshape your life. Today isn't the end. It's just the beginning. A great year doesn't happen by accident. It happens by dedication and by deciding that everything you are and everything you do belongs to God.

When you commit to the Lord, He will establish your plans. God isn't asking you to figure out every detail of your future. He is asking you to place every detail in His hands. When you commit your decisions, your schedule, your relationships, your finances, and your challenges to him, He aligns your steps in ways you could never imagine.

Dedication is more than a declaration. It's a direction. It's pointing your life toward God every single day. It's saying, “Lord, build in me what only You can build, tear down what doesn't belong, and lead me where You want me because my life is Yours.”

A surrendered year will produce a changed heart, a stronger foundation, and a life that reveals Christ. The best version of you is the one God builds.

Today

- Dedicate your year and prayer— pray: “God, I commit this year to You, every plan, every goal, every moment, it's all Yours.”
- Choose a word for the year— ask God for one word or thing that will guide your focus.
- Create a spiritual plan— decide how you will stay consistent with scripture, prayer, community, and serving.
- Surrender your outcomes— release the pressure to control everything, and trust that God will establish your steps.
