

Day 10 - For God to Move

“Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us.” — Ephesians 3:20 (NIV)

We all want to see God move in our lives — but are we MAKING ROOM for Him to?

You can't ask for a miracle while clinging to control. You can't ask for breakthrough while holding on to bondage. You can't ask for more of God if your life is already full of everything else.

If you want to see God do IMMEASURABLY MORE, you have to create space for Him to move.

The Bible is full of people who made room for God — and were never the same.

- Elijah made room for God to speak in a whisper.
- The widow made room for provision by pouring out the last of her oil.
- The disciples made room for Jesus and watched Him feed the five thousand.
- The early church made room through prayer — and the Spirit moved powerfully.

God is ready to move — BUT HE MOVES IN SURRENDERED SPACE.

What do you need to lay down so God can lift up? What space do you need to clear so He can fill it?

WAYS TO MAKE ROOM FOR GOD TO MOVE THIS WEEK:

- FAST SOMETHING — Remove a distraction (social media, TV, a meal) to create space for God's voice.
  - EXPECT THE MIRACULOUS — Don't limit God to your logic. Ask boldly. Trust fully.
  - SURRENDER CONTROL — Let go of what you've been holding and trust God to lead.
  - WORSHIP IN THE WAITING — God often moves in response to faith, not feelings.

Take a faith step — That conversation, that prayer, that risk — obedience unlocks the miraculous.

God can do more than you ask, think, or imagine.

But it starts with this question: HAVE YOU MADE ROOM?
