

What's In Session? April 2023 Report

The session met on April 24th, 2023.

Speakers:

The session rotates between elders as to who will give the monthly devotion. Matt Hilliard was the assigned elder for April. Nancy Trout will be the assigned elder delivering the devotion in May.

Gail Richardson reported on the state of the SACPC Preschool. The preschool is doing very well and is at capacity. Two summer camps will be offered which is up one from 2022. Gail explained the teaching approach that she uses which focuses on STEP and conscious discipline.

News:

Elders, Beth Davis and Shelley Hobson will represent SACPC and attend the Saturday, May 6th Presbytery of Coastal Carolina meeting. The meeting is scheduled to include proposed changes to the Book of Order. Beth and Shelley will report back to the session.

John Henderson, a rising senior from Davidson College, will serve as our summer intern. The church has hired an administrative assistant, Kristi Frazier, to assist Katie among numerous other duties.

SACPC will host the East Community Presbytery meeting on June 10th, 2023. Volunteers are needed, expecting around 100 to attend.

There is a called Session meeting on May 14th at 10:30 am to receive new members.

General:

Know that our session is in constant prayer for our church, its staff, and the congregation. We review attendance metrics and continuously look for ways to faithfully serve and be present in our community.

Committees:

Planning: Beth Cherry, Beth Davis, Jack Richardson

Congregational Engagement Committee: Matt Hilliard, Eddie Stuart, Tony McEwen, Jim Snyder, Nancy Trout, Shelley Hobson

Governance and Training: Kathy Denlinger, Lynn Atkinson, Dax Hawkins

Human Resource: Russell Herring, Joan Gray, Ryan Johnson

Finance: Lisa Bohbrink, Hugh Caison, Jason Swain