Welcome to Worship! | December 21, 2025 | 4th Sunday of Advent

GATHERING

Prelude Of the Father's Love Begotten

arr. John Purifoy

Welcome

Introit Wait for the Lord (remain seated)

Wait for the Lord, whose day brings love. Wait for the Lord, whose day brings love.

*Call to Worship and Advent Wreath Lighting

From a dead stump, a shoot can still grow— when the roots are strong;

when it seems all is lost, love can still live— when the “roots” are strong.

So let us dare to believe that love still lives; for God has been here before with us, when Isaiah dared to proclaim:

The Lord will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child.

She shall bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel: “God is with us.”

Let us dare to believe that love still lives;

for God is with us now and hears our prayers and cries for love.

And with the light of this fourth Advent candle,

let us dare to believe that love will still live;

for God will be with us—as long as light pierces the darkness.

The Root is strong. Out of the darkness, a light shines.

The love of God lives. Let us worship God.

*Hymn 88 O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

(Come forward with your 5-Cents-A-Meal Offering)

Call to Confession

Rev. Parker Lucas

Prayer of Confession

God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow, through scripture, dreams, messengers, and prophets, your Spirit stirs to lift up the lowly and fill the hungry, to establish equity throughout the earth. Forgive us for ignoring the cries of others and for turning away from the reality before us. Forgive us for not speaking up when we have seen injustice or when we choose to act unjustly. Forgive us for not living into the good news that life arises from death, that a shoot grows out of a stump. Let your love take root in our hearts and imaginations as we reflect and dream this week. Let it bear good fruit through our words and deeds as we act and engage in this world with you.
