"WHEN THE WINE RUNS OUT OF YOUR LIFE!" | JOHN 2 1-10 | JASON HOHNBERGER

WARM-UP QUESTION:

What part of a wedding reception is your favorite and why?

"Crisis Situation" (John 2: 1-)

Wine running out at the wedding in this culture would bring shame on the event and the marriage, and so Jesus intervenes. What are ways Jesus intervenes in people's lives today?

"Transformation" (John 2)

Jesus not only intervenes but transforms the potential shame into an amazing gift for all the guests at the wedding, bringing honor to the bridegroom's family. What does this show about Jesus? What does that mean for his followers today?

"Celebration" (John 2)

Jesus partners with the servants who work hard to fill the jars, but they get special insight into the miracle while the important guests were unaware. What are difficult things Jesus asks his followers to do today? How has obedience led to celebrations?

REFLECTION QUESTION:

This story foreshadows what Jesus wants to do with people: to change our sorrow into gladness, our mourning into joy and to bring us into a beautiful celebration in heaven. But to do that people need to obey to what Jesus tells them. What are tough things you think Jesus is asking you to do? What steps of obedience can you take this week? Pray that God intervenes and restores your joy as you obey.
