"READY OR NOT, HERE HE COMES" | LUKE 3 | PASTOR ANDREW LACASSE

WARM-UP QUESTION:

What type of visitor is a challenge to prepare for?

"John The Baptist Announces the Kingdom" (Luke 3: 1-9)

The Jews were wanting to be baptized but didn't think they needed repentance because they relied on their ethnic heritage and following traditions to make them good. John rebuked them for that. Why do people today think they don't need repentance?

"John the Baptist Teaches About the Kingdom" (Luke 3: 10-22)

John teaches the people they need to be ready for a great king who is looking for the genuine fruit of repentance. What does repentance look like today?

"Jesus' Family History" (Luke 3:23-38)

Luke records Jesus' family history, showing he was part of a human family yet part of God's plan and divine. What does that show us about God?

REFLECTION QUESTION:

Pastor Andrew Lacasse showed that John the Baptist's challenged some people who wanted the peace and joy of the kingdom without submitting to King Jesus, and other people who wanted a personal King Jesus without having to share Him with others or care for them. Which do you struggle with more? Pray and ask Jesus to help you follow Him and to care for all the others He loves.
