Dan Reid

Colossians 1:1-14

1. Dan opened up his sermon with this foundational truth that, “always we still need Jesus.” What helps you remember this?
2. The importance of “taking time in groups to hear each other’s faith stories” was stated. Have you done this within your group?
3. “As being in Christ, we’re given a new identity, salvation, and freedom.” How can you remind yourself that you’re indeed in Christ?
4. The imagery was poetically explained that, “grace is the fountain, and peace is the river that flows from it.” When have you experienced God’s grace that inevitably leads to His peace?
5. The sermon overviewed the Gospel and how it impacts us individually, and the whole world. What steps can you take to centralize the Gospel for yourself, so it doesn’t sit on the back-burner of your life?
6. Dan said that when we live in obedience to the knowledge of what we know, we’re living in God’s will. How does this comfort and encourage you?

7. It was shared that, "God's power gives us the power to wait." What are you currently waiting for? How can the group be praying for you in this?
