Mark 12:13-17 Mark Mitchell

1. What are some of the blessings we enjoy that are provided by the government?
2. Was there a time when you pinned your hopes on the government and it came up short?
3. In what ways have your political views conflicted with your Christian views?
4. Mark made the point that Jesus doesn't side with the right or the left. What examples did he share that supports that premise?
5. Read Mark 12: 13-17. What does it look like for you to honor your obligations to your nation? Your God? And how do you avoid mixing the two?
6. What are common ways we can error and render to Caesar what belongs to God alone?
7. Why should we be hopeful about the ability of the church to fulfill its mission in our post-Christian world?
8. What are some good strategies for Christians to work through our discussions on politics and positions and stay united in our allegiance to our higher kingdom?
