There is nothing more difficult to bear than when someone you love, and trust becomes an enemy.

Our inability to resolve conflict is often the reason we are not liked.

O Lord, how my adversaries have increased! Many are rising up against me. Psalm 3:1

Unforgiveness is the root cause of why so many dislike another.

Many are saying of my soul, there is no deliverance for him in God. Psalm 3:2

Selah

When you know you are disliked make sure you find comfort in God's character.

But You, O Lord, are a shield about me, my glory, and the One who lifts my head. Psalm 3:3

How would God handle this situation? Would he respond as I have responded?
Would he say what I said?

Has your character been more of a shield or a sword in times of conflict?

David and Absalom both have a difficult time of letting go of the hurt.
David finally allows Absalom to come and meet.
They kissed one another and determined to forgive.
David reinstates his wealth but Absalom's character becomes more of a sword.

When you pray and God brings the person who dislikes you to mind listen to what He says.

I was crying to the Lord with my voice, and He answered me from His holy mountain. Psalm 3:4

Selah

When you have done all you can do in the midst of conflict rest in the Lord.

I lay down and slept; I awoke, for the Lord sustains me. Psalm 3:5

Let your fear of what God thinks outweigh your fears of what others think.

I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me round about. Psalm 3:6

Arise, O Lord; save me, O my God! for You have smitten all my enemies on the cheek; You have shattered the teeth of the wicked. Psalm 3:7

Salvation belongs to the Lord; Your blessing be upon Your people! Psalm 3:8

Selah.
