Sermon Series: Acts: The Movement Begins

Sermon Title: The New Life

Passage: Romans 6:15-23

Main Point: The Christian life isn't restrictive but redemptive.

Preached By: Chase Snyder

A worldview is basically the combination of your personal values, beliefs, assumptions, attitudes, experiences, and ideas. These have an affect on your goals and desires, relationships and behaviors.

The book of Romans covers one view that affects our worldview. That belief is this: I'm a good person.

Romans 6:15

What then? Should we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? Absolutely not!

Romans 6:16

Don't you know that if you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of that one you obey—either of sin leading to death or of obedience leading to righteousness?

Romans 6:17–18

¹⁷But thank God that, although you used to be slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart that pattern of teaching to which you were handed over,

¹⁸and having been set free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.

Romans 6:19

I am using a human analogy because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you offered the parts of yourselves as slaves to impurity, and to greater and greater lawlessness, so now offer them as slaves to righteousness, which results in sanctification.

Romans 6:20–21

²⁰For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with regard to righteousness.

²¹So what fruit was produced then from the things you are now ashamed of? The outcome of those things is death.

Romans 6:22

But now, since you have been set free from sin and have become enslaved to God, you have your fruit, which results in sanctification—and the outcome is eternal life!

Romans 6:23

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Main Point: The Christian life isn't restrictive but redemptive.
