

But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned before, but you lacked opportunity. Philippians 4:10

*Not that I speak from want, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am.
Philippians 4:11*

“The Amish are people of sanity in a whirlpool of change.”

I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need. Philippians 4:12

How do we learn to be content with earthly things?

By learning to never be content with spiritual things.

You must learn that you can't take earthly trophies with you.

*Therefore, my beloved brethren whom I long to see, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord, my beloved.
Philippians 4:1*

You must learn that some hills are not worth dying on.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to live in harmony in the Lord. Philippians 4:2

Indeed, true companion, I ask you also to help these women who have shared my struggle in the cause of the gospel, together with Clement also and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. Philippians 4:3

You must learn to rejoice even when you don't feel like it.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, rejoice! Philippians 4:4

You must learn to yield as if the Lord is present.

Let your gentle spirit be known to all men. The Lord is nearby. Philippians 4:5

You must learn to stop worrying.

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. Philippians 4:6

*And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
Philippians 4:7*

*Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything, worthy of praise, dwell on these things.
Philippians 4:8*
