

Tyler Moore

Title: Vision Restored

Scripture: Mark 8:22-26 CSB or ESV

- It is of the utmost importance who we surround ourselves with in this life.
- The individual is of importance, not the crowd and their opinions.
- We care more about recognition and attention than genuine life change.
- His eyes were opened. His sight was restored. He saw everything clearly.
- No witch, faith healer, or mystic held a candle to the king of kings.
- Our spiritual blindness far outweighs this man's physical blindness.
- We become more like Jesus the more time we spend with Jesus.
- The Grace of God is sufficient.
- "I know better than God here..." is our default response when we sin.
- Just because it's good, doesn't mean it's right.
- The beauty of winter is that old things pass away and new things come.
- We aren't running from something. We are running to someone. His name is Jesus.
- We have a tendency to fall back on feelings and not lean into the Word.