Personal Reflection

Next week we would like to spend time sharing testimony of how Jesus is challenging you in your walk with Him as a result of the past 8 weeks. Prayerfully consider how you might share your journey following Jesus for the sake of encouraging others.

Prayer

“Jesus, help me to fully give up everything that is of myself to follow you. Continue to put in front of me areas in which I need to walk more closely in alignment with you. Give me the courage to love others as you love them and to walk alongside the broken and lost, just as you did. Jesus, unite us as one body of Jesus Followers so that your message of love would not be fractured by our fleshly desires. Amen.”
