

“BE STILL, MY SOUL:
SILENCE AND SOLITUDE, AN INVITATION TO THE SAVIOR”
Pastor Erick Loh, Lead Pastor
July 15, 2018

Text: Mark 6:30-44

Introduction

Silence: the temporary withdrawal from speaking for spiritual goals

Solitude: the temporary withdrawal from public life for spiritual goals

What the Text Is Not Saying (30-34)

1. The text does not say that silence and solitude are an absolute good

2. The text does not say that silence and solitude are an inferior good

What Scripture Says about Silence and Solitude

Summary: a wise and temporary means of practicing the disciplines

Wise:

Temporary:

Means:

What the Text Is Saying (30-44)