

THIS SUNDAY AT BCC

THE ARREST OF CHRIST: Few things are more painful in life than being betrayed by a friend, a close confidant, or—even worse—a family member. Sadly, when it comes to examples of betrayal, the Bible is not in short supply. (Joseph was betrayed by his brothers, as was King David by his two sons and, later, a trusted court counselor). Yet the greatest act of betrayal in the history of humankind was Judas Iscariot's betrayal of Christ. But from it, Jesus gave us an example for how to respond to acts of treachery committed against us. Let he who has ears hear! Join us this Sunday at 9:00 AM (Service #1) or 10:45 (Service #2) for Lesson #61 in our study MARK.
